

CARMEN ARE IN CONFERENCE

THEY TELL OF THEIR GRIEVANCES

Kelly, Havens and Heron
Take Part in Discussion
With the Men.

to Recess at Noon No Agreement of Any Kind Had Been Reached.

A conference between the Grievance Committee and representatives of the Oakland Traction Consolidated was held in the large room adjoining the office of E. A. Heron, president of the traction company, which has been fully prepared for their accommodation.

No names of the representatives of the carmen's union are given elsewhere.

THOSE PRESENT.

Representatives of the Oakland Traction Consolidated were present. Kelly, manager, F. C. Havens, manager of the Realty Syndicate, Harmon Bell, attorney for the company, and E. A. Heron, president of the traction company.

NOT SHUT OUT.

Mr. Heron, president of the company, was to be by a TRIBUNE reporter. He was asked if Mr.
Havens had been denied admittance to the conference. Mr. Heron stated that the story was unfounded, that Mr.
Havens was not present at the conference, that he had not made application for entrance, and that all who had been admitted to the discussion.

The conference came to a close about 11 o'clock and at that time President Mahon of the International Car-

men's Union was seen by a TRIBUNE reporter, and asked as to whether or not an agreement had been reached,
between the carmen and the traction company. Mr. Mahon said:

NO AGREEMENT.

"No agreement has been reached as
yet. We have simply taken a recess.
We have thus far been considering the request and the grievances of the street car men of this city.

"There has been no special spokesman for the carmen. There has been no special spokesman for the traction company.

"All of us have been speaking on the subject. Questions are being asked and answered amicably on both sides.

"There has been no hard feeling shown.

"We have not taken up our request which was presented to the union some time ago in a serious manner. We are talking the matter over generally and striving to cover all the points. Thus far we have reached no conclusion.

"The noon hour was reached and both parties decided that it would be a good thing to take a lunch, and we have accordingly adjourned or taken a recess until two o'clock this afternoon.

"I cannot tell what will be the result of the conference.

"Thus far there has been no display of feeling on the part of the traction company. I cannot forecast what will be the result of the conference. I do not know whether or not a result will be arrived at today.

"Both sides are displaying an equa-

STRIKE BREAKERS COMING

Fighting Men Will Be Sent Out From St.
Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 2.—Forty-five strike-breakers left this city for Oakland, Cal., tonight over the Alton-Burlington combination route. The men were recruited by the Thiel Detective Agency, and it is understood here are wanted in Oakland because of a threatened strike on the traction company's lines. It was said this evening that the squad sent out tonight would be supplemented by as many more tomorrow.

For nearly a week the Thiel agency has been quietly engaged in the task of securing nifty men to take the place of strikers, and the batch sent out this evening is the first of 100 Thiel has contracted to engage.

In labor circles it was stated that a majority of the men would jump the train before they reached Oakland, as a number of them who departed tonight were well-known unionists. G. I.
Lives, superintendent of the agency, is equally confident that the men will stick, and say he will have no trouble in securing all the men that may be needed in Oakland.

UNION MEN MEET BEFORE THE CONFERENCE

Names of Those Selected to Call on Officials of the Traction
Company.

During the morning an important meeting of the union officials who had been selected to look after the interests of the carmen's union was held in the headquarters of the union, 1068 Broadway.

Just what transpired there, behind locked doors, President W. H. Ellison, of the carmen's organization, would not divulge, but he declared that the conference was called early for the purpose of again reviewing the main points at issue in the controversy, and that it had an important bearing on the meeting which was to be held later in the morning with the representatives of the Oakland Traction Consolidated.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Those present at the meeting this morning, for the most part, are members of the executive committee of the union and men who are thoroughly conversant with the situation. The members, with President Ellison of the local, have been most active in the interests of the carmen, and all seemed to be confident that the action of the traction people would preclude any necessity of resorting to drastic measures, which would ultimately result in a tie-up of the street car lines of this city.

The personnel of the committee which has been selected to present the demands of the carmen to the officials of the traction syndicate is made up of men, staunch champions of principles that make unionism the most powerful weapon of defense, and even offense in just such struggles as now seems impending between the wealthy powers controlling the Oakland street railway corporation and their employees.

THE COMMITTEE.

The committee which met with the officials of the company was composed of W. D. Mahon, president of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees of America, who is in the field as a representative of the parent union body; Richard Cornelius, president of the San Francisco division of the organization, who is representing his local, one of the most powerful organizations on the Pacific Coast; President William H. Ellison, head of the local body, a tireless worker in the interests of the local street railway employees in the present

the following members of the agreement committee of the Oakland division: William B. Hamilton, Edward
C. Straub, J. Smart, D. C. Griereson,
Thomas Sawyer and S. F. Connelly.

All of these members seem to be sanguine of the good results which they were confident would be the outcome of the important meeting which was to portend the very life and death of union principles in Oakland.

President Mahon was loath to enter into any extended interview regarding the critical situation which confronted the carmen of Oakland, but seemed hopeful that all differences would be amicably settled in the conference between the employees and the traction magnates.

"All I have to say is that I trust the conference this morning will bring a settlement of all differences, and that a tie-up of the street railways in the city will not be necessary. We shall make every effort in our power to effect such a settlement and you may assure the public that their interests together with the welfare of the members of this union shall be paramount during the entire session of the conference which we have arranged with the officials of the Oakland Traction Consolidated. That is all I have to say at this time."

At the offices of the Realty Syndicate, 1218 Broadway, an air of mystery prevailed. No one of the clerks or employees seemed to be disposed to talk of the conference which was to decide one of the greatest industrial problems which the city of Oakland has had to deal with in years. President Heron, of the Oakland Traction Consolidated,
they declared, was not in his office,
and they did not know when he would be there.

"I have absolutely nothing to say,"
said Superintendent Potter, of the company, when approached by a TRIBUNE reporter. "I have my instructions and will maintain silence until the dispute is settled one way or another."

At eleven o'clock the parties interested went into conference.

TRACTION ALONE TO ANSWER

Other Corporations Not Bothering With Its Business.

Saturday afternoon an official of the Realty Syndicate gave the following statement to the San Francisco Chronicle:

"OAKLAND, March 31.—A non-partisan observer of the street railway situation in this city sized up the threatened trouble today as follows:

"The strike seems to be instigated
by Dingee and the Contra Costa Water Company, with aid from the United Railroads and the Southern Pacific.

"The interests of each are separate, but they are working to a common end.
Dingee is fighting the company because it has organized the Syndicate Water Company and is seeking possession of San Pablo and Sausal trunks, claimed by the Contra Costa Company. Dingee is further moved by desire for revenge upon W. G. Henshaw, who, because of differences over their cement business, sold all his interests in connection with Dingee and has cast in his lot with Heron, Havens and Smith.

"The United Railroads tried to buy the Oakland Traction Company for $7,000,000, but failed, and the present strike is intended to hammer the stock and, incidentally, the minds of the owners into a more negotiable shape.

"The Southern Pacific has been hurt by the Key Route, with its twenty-minute service, which has lopped off a vastly profitable patronage of which the Southern Pacific formerly had a monopoly.

"Nothing but time and events can prove these things, but there are a good many well-informed people who think this is the inwardness of the situation."

A TRIBUNE representative made inquiries of William J. Dingee and the head officials of the Southern Pacific and the United Railroads as to the truth of the alleged non-partisan

WHO IS SEEKING TROUBLE?

Carmen Are Attending Strictly to Their Business.

Editor TRIBUNE—Who is looking for trouble?

The traction managers began to yell,
"There's trouble coming," before the carmen voted ten to one to submit an ultimatum to the company.

Agents of the traction company began to scour San Francisco, Los Angeles and St. Louis for strikebreakers before there was any strike, or even a symptom of trouble.

Strikebreaker, it may be remarked, is a polite term to describe a hired fighter.

The company ostentatiously began laying in stocks of arms and barricading their barns and shops, discharging and intimidating men when everything was running smoothly and quietly.

While the carmen were quietly at work, asking only a friendly conference with the traction managers to consider a list of grievances they had presented, the railway officials were importing and arming strikebreakers and demanding that the sheriff deputize them, and that the Police Commissioners make them special policemen.

What is all this trumpeting, arming and preparation for coming battle, if not to incite disturbance and provoke conflict?

What have the carmen done to justify this martial array, this spurring up and down in hot haste for fighting men and the implements of bloodshed?

They are quietly attending to their business, running the company's cars as if nothing out of the ordinary was transpiring.

Again I ask: Who is looking for trouble?

CARMEN ENTITLED TO KNOW REASONS FOR THEIR DISCHARGE

The United Railroads Concede This and Give Their Employees a Hearing After Dismissal.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Inquiry reveals the fact that for the last years the United Railroads have denied the right of a discharged employee to demand and receive the reason for his dismissal, and to have a hearing in which he may have an opportunity to present his side of the case and prove his innocence.

This right conceded by the United Railroads is one of the principal demands the Oakland carmen have made on the Consolidated Traction Company.

We have received an appointment from Marie, Brizard & Roger, of Bordeaux, France, for Apricot Brandy. Before accepting the agency we compared Marie, Brizard & Roger's Apricot Brandy with similar Cordials.

This well known firm have the advantage over their competitors: Firstly, the Apricots grown in France have a reputation throughout Europe for their delicacy of flavor, and this is imparted in Brizard's Apricot Brandy. Secondly, the Brandy utilized in this popular distillation is exceptionally fine in quality. It has the distinct fin Champagne flavor.

The public in this territory will soon learn to appreciate the valuable superiority of Marie, Brizard & Roger's Apricot Brandy.

MINERS GO OUT

Obey the Order to Quit Work Almost to a Man.

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—Reports received today from the anthracite coal fields state that the order of the miners' scale committee, directing that mining be suspended until an agreement could be reached with the operators, is being obeyed almost to the man. In all three districts preparations were made by the operators for a resumption of work this morning. Whistles were blown at the regular hour, and everything was in readiness for the men to go to work, but there was no response by the miners, and the day took on a holiday aspect. Firemen, engineers and pumpmen, who are not affected by the suspension order, reported as usual, but it was apparent that the scores of empty coal cars which had been hurried to the collieries would not be needed unless an agreement was reached between President Mitchell and the coal presidents in their conference to be held in New York tomorrow.

That a great many miners believe there will be a bitter struggle between the workmen and their employers was evinced by the departure yesterday and today of scores of miners from the Schuylkill region. A majority of these men are foreigners who will go to their homes in Europe and there await the settlement of the strike.

At many of the collieries in the Luzerne and Wyoming districts the mines were taken from the mines, thus indicating that no effort would be made immediately to resume mining.

Quiet prevails throughout the districts.

statement given out by a Realty Syndicate official. Each and all emphatically denied having had anything to do, directly or indirectly, with inciting the threatened strike, or in any way promoting the disagreement between the Oakland Traction Company and the carmen. Said a prominent Southern Pacific official: "I suppose the Traction people deem it expedient to lay their troubles at somebody else's door, but the Southern Pacific has got used to being made a scapegoat for others, and no longer minds it particularly."

FORUM PLAYERS ARE A SUCCESS

Those who attended the dramatic performances given by the "Forum Players" of Fruitvale, at the armory of the Congregational Chapel last Thursday and Friday evenings, were well repaid for braving the storm that rendered the night unpropitious. A better amateur production has seldom, if ever, been witnessed on any stage. The players, each and all, were easy, natural and thoroughly at one with their respective characters. The entrances and exits—usually marred in such performances by awkwardness and awkwardness, went with the smoothness of professionalists. In fact, in its entire ensemble, "A Box of Monkeys," as it was rendered by the "Forum Players," was an exceptionally creditable performance. One of the chief features of merit in this presentation, was, that all the characters were equally well sustained. There was no "star" of superior excellence outshining the others, but the company was a constellation of stars. This was the opinion of all who witnessed the performance.

The rendition of the emotional one act melodrama, "The Snow Storm," by Spencer Riley and Miss Gertrude Maister, was so painfully realistic as to compel from the audience the highest tribute—tears, by reason of the appeal made to the tenderest emotions of love, pity and sympathy, by the thrilling naturalness of the interpretations of the characters.

The stage settings and the entire direction of those performances, were under the supervision of Mrs. John Aubrey Jones, to whom the players expressed their gratitude for having aided them so greatly by her judgment and aid.

By special request, the performance will be repeated on Monday evening next, at the same place. Any tickets purchased for previous dates, that were not used, will be honored at the door on that occasion.

Fidelity Company Writes to Supervisors That Matter Will Receive Prompt Attention.

The Board of Supervisors met in regular session this morning with all present except Supervisor Joseph Kelley, who is ill with pneumonia.

The following communication from the representatives of the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company, of Baltimore, in reference to reimbursing the county for the shortage of the late County Treasurer, A. W. Felder, was read and ordered filed.

"SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 30. "JOHN MITCHELL, Esq., Chairman Board of Supervisors, Alameda County, Oakland, Cal., Dear Sir: We beg to acknowledge receipt through our agent, J. B. Lunktree, at Oakland, of the resolution adopted by the Board of Supervisors for the county of Alameda, at a meeting held January 26, 1906, demanding from this company, in connection with the request for reimbursement of the county of Alameda, State of California, the sum of $18,476.00, on account of a shortage existing in the County Treasurer's office during the term of office of the late County Treasurer, A. W. Felder, State of California.

"The United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company stands ready and is able to meet any and all demands for any amount for which it is responsible under any bond executed by it. However, it is a set rule of this company that the payment of all claims must be made by the home office, we have accordingly forwarded the demand to that effect with the request that the matter receive immediate attention. Upon receipt of their reply we will promptly communicate with you.

COMPLAINT MADE.

The petition of William Smith of Newark, asking for the revocation of the liquor license of T. F. Silva Jr., at Newark, for the alleged offense of selling liquor to Nicholas Long, who is addicted to the inordinate use of intoxicants, if the license is not revoked, Silva had notified the saloonkeeper to furnish no more liquor to her husband, was then taken up.

Attorney John W. Stetson appeared for Silva and asked for a continuance of one week. It was decided to first hear the witnesses for the complainant, since several of them were present, and then to continue the matter for one week.

Mr. Smith, the complainant, who is a former foreman at Newark, J. M. Cahill, a machinist there; George E. Graham, superintendent of a stone foundry; and E. J. Felt, a machinist, all testified to having seen Long drinking and intoxicated in Silva's place several times during March, the notice having been served on February 26, 1906.

BIDS RECEIVED.

A resolution allowing claims for expenses of the County Clerk and deputies for registering voters in the county, not to exceed $500, was adopted.

Bids for improving Seminary avenue in Brooklyn township, were received as follows: Ransome Construction Company, $837; E. B. A. Stone Co., blue rock, $680; brown rock, $600.

Upon examination of the bids it was found that those of E. B. A. Stone Co. did not conform to the specifications and they were therefore rejected, the contract being let to the Ransome Construction Company.

PLANS FOR BRIDGE.

Plans and specifications for the construction of a concrete bridge across Savat creek, on Hopkins street at the boundary between Oakland and Fruitvale avenue, were received from County Surveyor Prather and approved. Mr. Prather estimated the cost at $4700. This is the bridge, the cost of which is to be borne by the city of Oakland and the county of Alameda in conjunction. The advertisement of the work was ordered.

A communication from the Stockmen's Protective Association asking that a deputy fire warden be appointed from the membership of that association to serve in the southeastern part of this county at the rate of $5 a day during the progress of any range fire, and that he be allowed to select a force of twenty-five fire fighters to assist him, at the rate of fifty cents per hour, was referred to the District Attorney.

A communication from the Dumbarton Land and Improvement Company, representing that all the trustees left elected for Reclamation district No. 82 in Alameda county, are now dead, and asking that an election be called, was referred to the District Attorney.

AID GIVEN.

Supervisor H. H. Rowe reported having granted aid to thirty-five indigents, the extent of $223, during March.

County Health Officer Cabral reported thirty cases of two cases, one of diphtheria and one of scarlet fever, during February.

APPLICATIONS.

The following applications for liquor licenses were made: N. Nixon, 224 1/2 S. St., Centerville; Adolph Bush, Pittsburgh; H. Dajias, Pittsburgh.

The following applications were granted: N. Nixon, 224 1/2 S. St., Centerville; Adolph Bush, Pittsburgh; H. Dajias, Pittsburgh.

The Office Boy and the April Fool Joke.

Ah say: But I'm sorry yesterday was Sunday and April Fool day both. I had such a good joke. I had a dog tied up in the basement all ready tied to a lovely tin can, and I was going to turn him loose, but there is nothing worse than a stale joke. Particularly an April joke, the day after, so I discarded the dog, and tin can, and peddled out sawdust and wooden chocolate. I suppose some day I will get licked or fired—I don't know which. Speakin' about jokes, I tell you that this business is no joke. Everything about this store is the Simon pure article, and everything purchased here that has flaws in it, bring it back and swap it for something else. If it is a store you can hang your hat on and find it when you come back.

A great cry went up because Polga mist Roberts was elected to Congress.
But protesting should not end with Rob erts for there are other polg mist in Congress. The Senator from one of o middle States the chairman of one of the most important committees is just as much a polygamist as Roberts. It is publicly known that simply because he took a fancy to another woman his first wife was forced to seek a divorce. It seems to make a vast difference whether the people who figure in these drama episodes are members of the New York elite, or the followers of Brigham Young.

Thousands of Dollars Loss Is Caused to Property in Vicinity of Fourteenth and Broadway.

Fire was discovered a few minutes before 4 o'clock this morning in the rear of the Athenian Club at the corner of Fourteenth and Franklin streets, and before the blaze was extinguished $3000 worth of damage was done to the property of the club $5000 to the Curtain Store immediately underneath $300 to the tailoring establishment of Louis Scheeline and $100 to the rear of Ye Liberty Theater.

The resident members of the club were awakened from their slumbers by Captain of Police Lynch, Sergeant of Police Henderson and Policemen Hunnely and Nightwatchman Lee Lyons. The members had no difficulty in escaping from the club. In fact the cracking of the flames in the rear of the building was sufficient to arouse the majority of them and when their doors were pounded upon they were already awoke.

Chief Hall and Fire Warden McDonald in preventing a conflagration which would have amounted to several hundred thousand dollars' damage, were greatly praised. The greatest amount of damage was done by the water and smoke. The windows of the club and the stores underneath it and those of the Liberty Theater were broken of necessity and the flood of water did much damage to the interior.

The only damage done by the fire was to the rear portion of the building. The wine room and kitchen of the club were charred badly. It is estimated that $1000 will repair this damage. The carpets of the billiard room and the hard tables themselves were so badly scorched that they will probably be sold for scrap. It will possibly $2000 to repair these. The club is fully insured.

Probably the heaviest sufferer is the Curtain Store. The basement where the goods were stored was flooded and the CHICAGO April 2.—The open revolt against John Alexander Dowle which took place yesterday was followed today by the transfer of all the public property of the Church of Zion to Alexander Granger whose dismissal had been directed by Dowle in a telegram from Mexico.

A warranty deed and a bill of sale were filed today in the Lake county Circuit Court at Waukegan, Ill. by W G Vollz the present head of Zion who was appointed, by Dowle some months ago by which all the lands standing in the name of Dowle and his wife are made over to Granger for the benefit of Zion City and the followers of Dowle generally. Vollz holds from Dowle a power of attorney and by virtue of it he has turned over to Granger everything portable in Zion City even to the bed of Dowle.

REWARD OFFERED

Searchers Are Seeking the Body of David Tyson.

NILES, April 2.—The search for the body of David Tyson who was drowned in Alameda creek last Friday evening was kept up all Saturday and Sunday without any trace of his body being found, and the family has now offered $200 reward for anyone who recovers it. The story of his death has now been learned and was even more tragic than when first announced.

According to the statement of Mrs. Tyson, she and her husband had been at the skating rink and while she remained there Tyson had been around with a number of convivial spirits and was in high spirits when they began their walk to their home. When they got to the bridge over Alameda creek, which was booming as it never has before, owing to the heavy rains, Tyson told his wife that he needed a bath and that he thought he would take one.

She considered his statement in the light of a joke and went on across the bridge, but returned when she saw he was not coming. In the meantime he had climbed over the railing and taking hold of the plank let himself down by his hands. He then proceeded to pull himself up and found that he did not have sufficient strength. He called to his wife to help him and she pulled as hard as she could but he was too heavy for her. He then told her to try and get hold of his leg but she could not reach down far enough, and finally getting tired, he said good-bye and dropped into the surging waters twenty feet beneath.

Mrs. Tyson says that while she was trying to help her husband up a freight train went over the trestle and that she called as loudly as she could, but that the noise of the train drowned her voice which was lost in the storm. The creek is very much swollen and it is feared the body has been carried out into the bay.

WAR IS PREDICTED

Russia and China Are On the Verge a Conflict.

MOSCOW, April 2.—The Russian Shovo has received a sensational telegram from his correspondent at Harbin, Manchuria, saying that hostilities are imminent between the Russian and Chinese troops. He intimates that the Chinese, influenced by Japanese, are moving forward; that the situation is so tense that the Russian demobilization of troops has been stopped, and that General Grodoff, the Russian commander-in-chief, has issued instructions to prepare for eventualities.

FREE PASS IS BRIBERY, HE SAYS

DES MOINES, Iowa, April 2.—Governor Folk, who arrived here today to be present at the Jefferson Day banquet which will be held tonight, dictated an interview for publication in which he declared that every State in the Union should enact anti-pass and state wide primary laws. Governor Folk called on Governor Cummins at the State House and later addressed the Iowa Legislature. Concerning the free pass bill 'evil Governor Folk said:

"The free pass is the most hideous, insidious, species of bribery, and the sooner the practice is stopped the better it will be for the public welfare. The primary system is so manifestly the right, proper and honest method of making party nominations that it is hardly necessary to comment on it."

The trial of Henry A. Logan, former trustee of the Free Baptist Church, for running away with Ethel Cook, a youthful Sunday school teacher in the church to which he belonged, was called in the criminal department of the Superior Court this morning, but owing to the fact that Attorney A. L. Frick was engaged in the trial of the case of Lester C. McNulty, the case had to be postponed and it was put over until April 17.

Logan left a wife and family to run away with a girl who, while old appearing, is not yet 15 years of age. The specific charge against him is the enticing away of a minor child. He has been tried once and the jury disagreed, and he is now awaiting his second trial.

WILL BE INDICTED

Mrs. Le Doux's Case Will Be Heard by Censors.

STOCKTON, April 2.—The case of Mrs. Emma Le Doux, charged with the murder of A. N. McVicar, was given to the Grand Jury this morning, a new indictment body having been selected for the purpose. The jury is composed of the following named:

George Hudson, foreman; E. S. Van Meter, George E. Minges, Edward P. Davis, Broderick Jones, D. T. Sutton, Benjamin M. Woodhull, Jacob Gerton, Howard F. Hollenbeck, Andrew Wolf, Stark E. Smith, Arthur Hamlet, W. B. Hardacre, Frank Perrott, Henry Elchoff, Joseph M. Carson, Julius L. Brumel, G. Allegretti and Frank Labonta.

There are a great many witnesses to be examined, and it is not thought the indictment will be returned until late this afternoon.

Ex-Judge A. N. Sullivan of Plattsburgh, Neb., arrived in Stockton today. He is an uncle of the deceased. He states that he is not here in a legal sense, but stands ready to assist the prosecution in any way that may be required.

"I am not moved by a spirit of revenge, nor have I any feelings against the accused woman, being actuated only by a sense of public duty. The safety of the public demands her conviction and punishment if she is guilty. Following the acquittal of Pat Crowe there was a terrible carnival of crime—murders, robberies and the work of thugs. I hope exact justice will be done in this case."

Mr. Sullivan, for whom the deceased was named, spoke very highly of him as a man. He will probably return to his home tomorrow, and may possibly be seen at the trial of Mrs. Le Doux. J. C. McVicar will start for Wichita, Kans., this evening with the body of his brother.

CASE IS CONFIRMED

Important Assessment Decision Handed Down by Court

STOCKTON, April 2.—Information was received here today to the effect that the Supreme Court had confirmed the judgment of the Superior Court of this county, in the case of the San Francisco and San Joaquin Valley Railway Company against the city of Stockton. Judge Buck decided for the defendant.

County Assessor Ortman in 1900 assessed the property of the plaintiff which was not on the direct route through town, including depot site, spur tracks, etc.

The plaintiff contended that the assessor had no right to assess this property for county purposes.

The city assessor followed in the footsteps of the county assessor. The decision covers both cases, the two-city and county—having been tried as one by stipulation. The decision is of utmost importance throughout the State.

BIG CROWD AT SALINGER'S

SPECIAL SALE TODAY WAS A LARGE SUCCESS.

That judicious advertising pays was demonstrated by the tremendous crowd at Salinger's store on Washington street, since early morning.

It was announced that there would be special sales of every article at the store on account of a change in the management.

The prices were advertised as being just right, and as a result the big department store has been crowded to the doors since early morning.

It was most interesting to watch the people go from one department to another, purchasing goods.

Salinger's big store contains almost every kind of an article, and of course, people were getting splendid bargains for their investment.

The sale was a grand success.

NEW MANAGER FOR CALL

PORTLAND, Ore., April 2.—C. J. Owen, for many years editor and manager of the Evening Telegram of this city, has resigned his position to accept the business management of the San Francisco Morning Call. James F. Tyler, who for some time past has been news editor of the Evening Telegram, will succeed Mr. Owen, and Hugh Hume will assume the duties of news editor. All three gentlemen were formerly California newspaper men and are well known in the profession.

FRESHMEN MEET ON OVAL

BERKELEY, April 2.—The first intercollegiate track meet for the freshmen of the University of California and Stanford was held this afternoon at the Berkeley oval. The track was in good condition, despite the heavy rain of the night before.

The Stanford contingent arrived at 1 o'clock, 200 strong. The Berkeley boys came on the field at 2 o'clock, and a preliminary practice took place before the first event, the mile run, was called.

The officials are as follows: Referee, John Elliot; starter, George Claman; timers, Colonel George C. Edwards, Dr. Angell, Gred Koch, G. Ackerman, Prof. Torrey; judges at the finish, David Brown, Everett Brown, William Powell and J. R. Hinkle, clerks of the course, A. R. Galloway, H. Bell, field judges, B. Hyde, R. Woolsey, M. A. Thomas, A. S. Moody.

THE WINNERS.

The results were as follows: The mile run was won by E. S. Kinsley of Stanford, Keyes of California second, Bradford, Stanford, third. Time 5 min. 3 1/2 sec.

One hundred yard dash, won by Stanton of California, Crossfield of California, second; Holman of Stanford, third. Time, 10 3-5 sec.

Low hurdles, won by Cowles of California; Dozier of California, second; Freyett of Stanford, third. Time, 15 2-5 sec.

APPEAL TO PRESIDENT

Operators Send a Long Telegram to Chief Executive.

INDIANAPOLIS, April 2.—The executive committee of the operators of the southwestern district today sent the following telegram to President Roosevelt:

"To the President, Washington. Coal operators representing more than ninety per cent of the output of coal in the territory named this afternoon offered the following resolution in joint convention:

"The operators of the Southwestern Interstate Coal Operators Association, embracing Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas, Texas and Indian Territory, realizing the gravity of the crisis caused by the failure of themselves and the miners to agree on a wage scale and conditions of labor in that field, now propose to submit all questions at issue to arbitration before a commission to be appointed by the President of the United States, the award of said commission to be binding on both operators and miners.

"Notwithstanding their action, the operators are still anxious that the difficulties between them and the miners be adjusted."

W. C. PERRY, President Southwestern Interstate Coal Operators Association.

STRIKE RENEWED IN FRANCE

LENS, France, April 2.—The strike is being renewed throughout the mining region. A sanguinary affair has occurred at Henin-Liétard. A strike was called there and the miners were wounded. Houses were sacked and windows were broken.

Over 20,000 strikers are parading and have engaged in riotous manifestations. A thousand additional troops have arrived here. The parliamentary committee today began its investigation into the cause of the strike.

The strike was renewed before the committee's headquarters.

VIEWS REMAINS OF BROTHER

STOCKTON, April 2.—J. E. McVicar, brother of A. N. McVicar, the victim of the trunk murder, arrived in Stockton today from Cripple Creek, Colorado. He conducts a laundry there.

Mr. McVicar viewed the remains of his brother at the Morgue this morning. He will remain in Stockton several days, and possibly throughout the trial.

Mr. McVicar is in consultation with the District Attorney's office this afternoon.

There are no new developments in the case here, but District Attorney Norton and Sheriff Sibley went to San Francisco today to look up some details. The exact nature of their errand they would not disclose.

The accused acts and sleeps well and reads magazines and there is no change in her demeanor.

DR. WOOLSEY COMING BACK TO OAKLAND

In a private letter Dr. E. H. Woolsey says he will sail from Honolulu on the steamship Sonoma, April 3, on his return trip to San Francisco. He says Oakland would have a dozen first-class hotels if she had the enterprise of Honolulu. Dr. Woolsey appears to have enjoyed his stay in Hawaii immensely, and to have fallen in love with the climate. The Honolulu Advertiser prints a letter from which the following is an extract, which the doctor wrote to the secretary of the chamber of commerce expressing his appreciation of the delightful climate of the islands:

"During my six weeks' stay in Honolulu, every day has been like a levelled day in any climate, even in California—the land of sunshine and flowers. Every day the sun glints brightly through ever-changing clouds. Clouds help much to make this climate perfect. The floor is beautiful and every day and every night balmy breezes greet the tourist, but when all that can be said is reduced to its last analysis, the glory of Hawaii is its cloud effects."

Dr. Woolsey has entirely recovered from the injury to his leg which he received shortly after reaching Honolulu, and will greet his Oakland friends in the best of health and spirits.

SANTA FE TRAIN IN AN ACCIDENT

LAS VEGAS, N. M., April 2.—Passenger train No. 10, the El Paso-Chicago Flyer, eastbound, on the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, was derailed by a broken rail thirty-seven miles south of Las Vegas today. All the cars were derailed and five Mexicans en route to Kansas City are reported to have been seriously injured. There were no fatalities.

CHICAGO, March 31.—William Schroder, seventy-seven years of age, and a former instructor at Notre Dame University, declared to the police today that he had, by false pretenses, been induced to deliver property in Missouri, Indiana, Michigan and Colorado valued in the aggregate at $25,000, to James Low and Aurelius Turpin, in exchange for some worthless securities. The two men were arrested.

RIGHTS OF NATIONS

United States Trying to Bring About Good Feeling.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Convinced that reciprocity treaties with Great Britain for the establishment of closer trade relations between the United States and Canada are out of the question at this time, Secretary Root has determined to abandon the tariff question for the present and is busying himself with other matters of vital interest to this country and Canada, with hopes of settling points of difference which have been settled by the joint high commission when the Klondike gold strike caused the negotiations to be broken off suddenly and engendered a feeling of hostility which did not subside until a mixed tribunal fixed the boundary between the British and American mineral lands.

A canvass of the Senate persuaded Secretary Root that a treaty would not be considered at this session of Congress. Although there was much clamor for tariff revision and modification early in the session, it failed to gain many supporters and the recent announcement of Chairman Payne of the House Committee on Ways and Means that no tariff legislation would be passed by this Congress confirmed the reports that Republican leaders had agreed to accept the counsel of the "stand patters."

As the State Department is under obligations to secure concessions for Germany in return for the favor she gave the United States by permitting this the United States to permit the British vessels in the United States recently put into force by the German government, Secretary Root decided that it would not be wise to undertake other tariff preparations at a time when legislators seem so little inclined to talk changes.

Still fishing in Berlin sea and the North Pacific is a subject of dispute between Canada and the United States. In 1892 the subject was referred to arbitration, and the Paris tribunal of arbitration decided against the United States and ruled that the taking of seals in the high sea was a violation of the law of nations, but as the United States and Great Britain had both declared themselves in favor of pelagic sealing, which was deemed adequate to protect the seals of the United States, the tribunal ruled that the United States had no right to demand a settlement of the subject. The United States has since then been endeavoring to secure a settlement of the subject, which would be deemed adequate to protect the seals of the United States.

Other subjects which will doubtless be taken up again by Secretary Root are: Provisions for the trans-shipment of merchandise in transportation, or from either country across intermediate territory of the other, whether by land or water; transit of merchandise from one country to be delivered in points in the high sea; the frontier, alien and other subjects of the subjects or citizens of the United States and of Canada, mining rights of the subjects or citizens of each country within the territory of the other; a revision of the agreement in 1817 respecting naval vessels on the great lakes; provisions for the conveyance for the punishment of persons in the lawful custody of officers of one country through the territory of the other; reciprocity in wrecking and salvage rights.

Clarence Crowell, chairman of the Republican County Central Committee of Alameda County, has called a meeting of that organization for next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, for the purpose of endorsing the administration of Governor George C. Pardee.

Mr. Crowell says that similar committees in other counties have already commended the efforts of the governor in his official position, and Alameda County can not now be criticized if she voices her sentiments, through her Republican Central Committee on the subject.

The meeting in question will be held in Justice Quinn's courtroom at the corner of Eighth and Broadway.

HOWARD OFF FOR EUROPE

BIG FINANCIER WILL ATTEND A CEMENT CONGRESS IN MILAN.

John L. Howard, president of the Western Fuel Company, and head of the great firm of John L. Howard & Co., will depart tonight for Europe. Mr. Howard goes to attend an international congress of men interested in the manufacture and use of cement, which is shortly to meet in Milan, Italy. This congress will be attended by eminent engineers and architects, as well as representatives of the principal cement manufacturing interests throughout the world.

Mr. Howard is admirably equipped to participate in such a gathering. He is essentially a man of affairs, and is actively identified with all the great interests of the Pacific. He is familiar with every detail of the sale, manufacture and use of cement; is perhaps the best informed man in California on the subject.

Moreover, he is prominently identified with the sugar producing, coal mining, banking, importing, shipping and grain exporting business. He is a director in some of the leading banks, and is president of the largest beet sugar manufacturing company in California. In short, Mr. Howard is actively engaged in a multiplicity of business pursuits of the most important character, and is intimately connected with the largest industrial and financial interests in the State. He is the heaviest operator in cement and fuel on the Pacific Coast.

Mr. Howard's stay in Europe will be as brief as his mission will permit, as he is under the press of many heavy business engagements at home.

Moreover, he is prominently identified with the sugar producing, coal mining, banking, importing, shipping and grain exporting business. He is a director in some of the leading banks, and is president of the largest beet sugar manufacturing company in California. In short, Mr. Howard is actively engaged in a multiplicity of business pursuits of the most important character, and is intimately connected with the largest industrial and financial interests in the State. He is the heaviest operator in cement and fuel on the Pacific Coast.

Mr. Howard's stay in Europe will be as brief as his mission will permit, as he is under the press of many heavy business engagements at home.

MERCHANT GIVEN TIME.

Police Judge Smith this morning continued the case of Fred Sinclair, a commission merchant, accused of having refused to pay the license tax imposed by a recent ordinance, until April 4 to plead.

WASHINGTON, April 2.—President Roosevelt has appointed Frederick W. Whitridge of New York special ambassador to represent the United States at the wedding of the Duke of Spain.

MRS. LA DOUX SAYS SHE FOOLED OFFICERS

Declares There Was No Joe Miller In the Famous Murder Case.

STOCKTON, April 2.—Mrs. Emma Le Doux has made the following statement:

"I invented the whole story I told the District Attorney, so as to throw the officers off the track until I could see my attorney and have him secure a certain piece of evidence which is my whole case, and which might have been destroyed if I had not protected myself in this way."

"There is no Joe Miller, and the officers may as well stop looking for him, now that he has served my purpose."

"By throwing the officers on a false trail the real facts, which establish my innocence, were protected from them."

"I don't want to accuse anyone of wishing to hang an innocent woman, but we all know it is the business of the District Attorney to secure convictions, and I couldn't take any chance of having my innocence destroyed."

ENDORSE COLLINS AGAIN IN COURT

County Committee Will Meet Next Monday Afternoon

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—George D. Collins appeared before Superior Judge Burnett this morning. He was there for trial on the first perjury indictment against him, and to argue a motion for admission to bail.

When the case was called Collins announced that he was ready and wanted them to be taken up at once.

Attorney Johnson stated that the district attorney was not ready to proceed with either trial or argument on motion for bail, and in the face of Collins' vigorous objection, both cases went over until next Saturday.

NEW YORK, March 31.—The anthracite operators' committee of seven today authorized the following statement:

"Some of the bituminous workers who are now active in directing matters in the anthracite industry have asserted that the wages in the former industry are higher than in the latter. Mr. Mitchell has often intimated this, although he has never given any facts to support his claim. It was claimed before the strike commission that the earnings of the anthracite miners were less than those in the bituminous fields, and similar assertions have been since made. The commission found that there has been a failure of testimony to support this proposition. It is established by the official figures that the earnings of all classes of workers are much higher in the anthracite than in the bituminous industry. The last report of the Secretary of Internal Affairs of the State of Pennsylvania contains the facts as to both industries for the year 1904."

HE FELL FROM THE RIGGING

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—Sent aloft in the strong northwest gale which swept over the bay this morning, Frank Johnson, a Swedish sailor on the British ship Cawdon, lost his footing in the rigging and was hurt eighty feet to his death on the dock below.

LITTLE ROCK, April 2.—State Senator Butt, accused of accepting a bribe and who refused to answer questions propounded by the grand jury, on the ground that he might incriminate himself, must answer, according to a decision of the Supreme Court today.

DIES FROM HIS WOUNDS

WOODLAND, April 2.—Ray E. Murphy of Esparto, who was accidentally shot there Thursday evening by Troy Barr, died from the effects of his wound in a sanitarium here this morning.

CARS GO OVER AN EMBANKMENT

ATLANTA, April 2.—A Special to the Journal from Macon, Ga., says that Chicago and Florida Limited on the Southern Railway, southbound, turned over and rolled down an embankment at Holton, eight miles this side of Macon.

It is reported several have been killed or injured.

The Southern Railway office here says that the first three cars of the train were derailed and that no one was killed, and no one seriously injured in the wreck. The porter of a sleeping car and a baggage man were slightly injured.

POLICE DOUBT MAN'S STORY OF A HOLD UP.

J. H. McDonald reported to the police this morning that he was held up last night at the corner of Sixth and Broadway and released with $15 in cash and a watch. He did not remember any of the circumstances of the case, and could not give the names of the men who held him up.

CONDUCTOR MURDERED

News Agent Shoots Railroad Man Who Reprimanded Him.

ROSWELL, N. M., April 2.—Frank B. Curtis, a passenger conductor on the Pecos Valley and Northeastern Railroad, was shot thrice and killed last night on his train between Portal and Andover by C. L. Price, news agent, whom he had reprimanded for alleged insults to women passengers.

Price was taken from the train and taken to Portal today for his preliminary trial. He claims to have shot Curtis in self-defense, but it is said the conductor was unarmed.

BERKELEY AND UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

PROPOSE GRAND OPERA FOR "BLOOMER SOCIAL" IS ANNOUNCED BY "NO CHEAP PARASOLS FOR US," SAY THE "CO-EDS!"

Greatest Opera Singers in America May Soon Be Heard on the University Campus. W. R. C. Plans Entertainment at Which a Number of Maidens at the University Decide Upon Sartorial Effects for Class Day Next Month.

BERKELEY, April 2.—If the plans of the Conried Grand Opera company materialize the residents of the bay cities will be given an opportunity to hear the greatest stars of the operatic world in the Greek Theater of the University of California. Manager C. H. Meltzer for Mr. Conried is to arrive in San Francisco within the next few days and he will then lay a proposition before President Wheeler for two concerts to be given during the Greek opera season in the Greek Theater. The plan as it now stands is to have the leading singers of the company, including Emma Eames, Olive Tremstad, Caruso, Sembrich, Rossi and others, accompanied by the Metropolitan orchestra, give two concerts on Sunday afternoon, April 22 and Sunday afternoon, April 29, charging prices much lower than those charged for the operas in San Francisco.

About a week ago Mr. Meltzer met a party of Californians on the train going from New York to Chicago, and he mentioned the Greek Theater to them, of which he had heard only by reputation. The grandeur of this unique structure was explained to him at length by the Californians and one member of the party suggested that his company give a concert in this structure. Meltzer thought the idea a good one and said that he would see what arrangements could be made with President Wheeler. The Conried company will be in San Francisco from Monday, April 16 to Saturday, April 28, and it is Mr. Meltzer's intention to hold the company over for a day if arrangements can be made for Sunday concerts.

AN OBSTACLE.

An unexpected obstacle has, however, been met in the fact that President Wheeler says that no Sunday concert will be allowed at which there is an admission charge, and it is doubtful whether any other day will be acceptable to the singers.

When seen by a TRIBUNE reporter last night President Wheeler said: "No formal proposition has yet been made to me though I have had intimations of the matter. But under no considerations would a Sunday concert be allowed if admission were charged and of course I understand that this will be a feature. We have our regular free half-hour of music every Sunday at which no admission is charged and I would allow nothing to interfere with these. However, I should certainly consider favorably any proposition for concerts during the week and think that some arrangement may be made."

Professor William Dillam Arnes, chairman of the dramatic committee of the University looks at the matter in somewhat the same light. "They might as well try to give a Sunday afternoon concert on the moon as to give one in the Greek Theater Sunday and charge admission. Our regular Sunday concerts are free and we intend to continue them so. Only once, several years ago, was admittance charged to any Sunday function and that was with the expressed disapproval of the President and I am sure that in the future no such thing will be allowed."

"But if Mr. Meltzer wants to make arrangements for any other day I am the man for him to see. If any other day would do we should be willing to listen to him, but if Sunday is his only day he would be badly turned down."

When asked about the concert last night, Professor Wolfe, leader of the symphony orchestra of the University said that he would like to see a program before speaking, but that he might think a great event might be made of it.

Mr. Meltzer is due to arrive here in a few days and he will probably take up the matter with the University authorities at once.

MRS. R. CUNNINGHAM. MRS. H. KIRKHAM.

BERKELEY, April 2.—The "co-eds" have finally settled the question of the sartorial effects of class day at the University. A vehement discussion of the matter at a recent meeting held in North Hall, on the campus, by the Associated Women Students of the senior class of "naughty six," closed the issue. Miss Phoebe Blaney, president of the Associated Women Students, presided at the meeting.

White linen parasols with bright red bows tied at the top are to be carried by the graduates. The cheap silk parasols of the past were not mentioned in the discussion. Not a word was said about these so called ugly looking things. The women thought they could afford more elaborate ones, and so decided.

White duck suits will be worn exclusively by the women students. There will be uniformity of style. No military will be displayed on this all important

BANKER IS GUEST OF WHEELER

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT ENTERTAINS FORMER SECRETARY OF U. S. TREASURY.

BERKELEY, April 2.—A distinguished New York banker, Hon. Charles Stebbins Fairchild, and wife, are guests of President and Mrs. Wheeler.

Mr. Fairchild is a prominent lawyer and banker of New York. He was Secretary of the Treasury under President Cleveland. Since that time he has been a member of the New York Society and the City of New York. He is also a member of the State Aid Association, vice-president of the National Association of Bankers, and a member of the Monetary Commission. He was also a member of the Indianapolis Convention of 1897. He is also one of the overseers of Harvard University.

Mr. Fairchild will remain several days in Berkeley.

YEARS OPERATION WITHOUT CHLOROFORM

BERKELEY, April 2.—Rev. W. B. Hancock, the colored clergyman who was injured by a Telegraph avenue trolley several days ago was operated on Sunday morning at the Roosevelt hospital. His right leg was removed below the knee but the clergyman refused to take either chloroform or ether and would have only cocaine put in the wound. The operation was performed by Dr. H. N. Rowell and was bravely borne by the Rev. Hancock.

MANY MUSICIANS TO BE ADDED

BERKELEY, April 2.—Dr. Wolfe's symphony orchestra will be greatly enlarged for the next symphony concert in the Greek Theater a week from Thursday. The addition of more than twenty musicians will bring the number of the orchestra up to nearly 100. The will be chiefly in the number of instruments as the next concert is to be devoted entirely to the music of Wagner. It will require a greater volume than any of the preceding.

NOTES FROM THE UNIVERSITY

MINING GRADUATE'S ADVICE.—HEROISM OF STUDENT.—BANQUET.

BERKELEY, April 2.—J. S. Colbath, a graduate from the college of mining with the class of 1902, has just been appointed to a position as cyanide expert at Sonora, Mexico, for the Crestor Colorado Mining Company.

Mr. Colbath recently delivered an address to the mining students, in which he gave an interesting account of the mining district at Telluride, Colo. The talk was illustrated with some beautiful lantern slides. He gave the mining students sound advice as to the best method of securing and retaining positions in the mining world.

Mr. Colbath was a member of the mining class of 1898 and is now general manager of the Alaska Treadwell mine, the Empire mine, the Siskiyew mine, the Onondaga mine of California and of the Marioposa State.

GIVES UP CAREER.

Robert P. Stephenson, a graduate of the university, class 1902, has just given up the study of the law in order to save children. The Boston Post of March 19 comments on Mr. Stephenson's action as follows: "The student of law who has given up the study of the law in order to save children is a hero."

Mr. Stephenson is a graduate of Harvard Law School, 1902, and of the University of California, 1902. He has given up the study of the law in order to save children. He is now a member of the "Bureau of the Schools." John McNaught, managing editor of the San Francisco Call, will speak on "Education from the Standpoint of a Newspaperman." Superintendent Kirk will talk on his trip to the superintendents' convention at Louisville, Ky. President Wheeler will also deliver an address.

WAGNER IS NEXT IN LINE

BERKELEY, April 2.—It will be a day of Wagner music at the University when the next symphony concert in the Greek Theater is given, on the afternoon of April 13, for the famous German composer will on that day have complete right of way on the program. The program is to be exclusively Wagner, and great is the rejoicing accordingly among the lovers of the Wagnerian school of music.

Each one of the four symphony concerts thus far given by the University orchestra has included in its program at least one Wagner number. At the first concert Professor J. Fred Wolfe and his men played the introduction to the third act of "Die Meistersinger," with the dance of the apprentices, the procession of the mastersingers and the greeting to Hans Sachs. The "Mozart Festival" on March 1 closed with two Wagner numbers, the "Siegfried Idyll" and the "Overture to Rienzi." At the third symphony concert, on March 15, the prelude to "Lohengrin" brought the audience to a pitch of great excitement and enthusiasm. The fourth symphony concert, on March 29, closed with the splendid prelude to "Die Meistersinger."

IS A FAVORITE.

Wagner has for years been a favorite composer in California; old seasons of opera at the Tivoli have made California music lovers exceedingly familiar with Lohengrin, Tannhauser and the Flying Dutchman, and the visits of the Grau, Savage and other opera companies have acquainted the people with all the glories of the Nibelungen Ring, with the majesty and the devotion of Parsifal, with the joyous splendors of Die Meistersinger, and the passionate exaltation of Tristan and Isolde. In concert room, from open air bands, and in the homes of music lovers, Californians have heard again and again the great creations of Wagner's genius, until they are here familiar and beloved as are the works of scarcely any other modern composer.

All this means that the thousands who eagerly merged into one splendid instrument through the experience of four concerts, and by the time of the Wagner program, thirty rehearsals, the orchestra is further enriched for the fifth concert by accessions in the brass, the woodwind and the string choirs. The orchestra will be fitted to give such an expression of Wagner's music as it never before has received from any orchestra in California.

The Wagner program will begin with the uplifting strains of the prelude to "Parsifal," then will be played the music of the transformation scene, and the finale of the first act from "Parsifal," then the Good Friday spell, also from "Parsifal." This will be followed by Wagner's farewell and magic fire music from "Die Walkure," then will come the sombre magnificence of Siegfried's Death March from "Die Gotterdammerung," and the program will end with the overture to "Tannhauser," unfurling in its beauty and delight.

April 7 at 10 o'clock, Rasmussen on April 5, at 12 o'clock, and Olson on April 6th, at 10 o'clock. The attorney for the boys ask that their bail be reduced from $1000 to $500, but the request was refused.

WOMAN WANDERS HELPLESSLY

BERKELEY, April 2.—Mrs. Frank Pitts, an aged woman, found herself in peculiar plight yesterday, having wandered from her home at 2124 Ashby avenue, and being unable to recall its location, or to give those who took charge of her information that would enable them to see her safely back to her friends.

Mrs. Pitts left her home during the forenoon yesterday, dressed for a walk, wearing a hat and shawl, and giving no hint that any trouble agitated her. She wandered around the town for several hours, finally losing her sense of location, and apparently partially deranged.

Habitues of the Ashby avenue railroad station took charge of her, when they found her helpless there, and telephoned to the police. Officer Leonard took Mrs. Pitts to the station, where she remained until relatives, who were very much worried, had telephoned to police headquarters, learning of her presence there, and took her home.

BAKERS WILL MEET IN COLLEGE TOWN

BERKELEY, April 2.—About 150 delegates from the Master Bakers' Association of California will visit Berkeley next Sunday as the guests of the local branch of that association. The visitors will take a trip through Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley and will visit the University and Piedmont Park. In the afternoon they will be banqueted at Golden Sheet Hall.

On the Shelf

of every home in the United States there should be a bottle of Shiloh's Consumption Cure, the Lung Tonic, for Coughs, Colds and all irritations of the throat, lungs and air passages. It is easy to take, gives instant relief and cures permanently.

Generation after Generation have pronounced Shiloh to be the safest, surest, quickest and best family cure for Colds and Coughs. Nothing has ever been found to take its place in the home. Try Shiloh and be cured, or say you were not and get your money back. Isn't this fair?

Mrs. E. James, of Hibbing, Minn., says: "There is no cure like Shiloh for Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Bronchitis or Whooping Cough. My oldest son was almost choked. The doctor could not relieve him. He used two bottles of Shiloh and was completely cured. I thank you."

TART WORDS FROM 'VARSITY MAN

BERKELEY, April 2.—Elmer B. Harris, one of the university's most brilliant sons, a graduate with the class of 1901, who has won his spurs as a dramatist in Europe, and now is back under the shadow of the university campus, with his outlook broadened by travel and study abroad, has given to a TRIBUNE reporter some tart expressions of belief with respect to the condition of the theater in America.

Harris does not mine words when it comes to dealing with a subject that evidently lies close to his heart. He loves the theater—when it is worthily conducted and properly estimated. He won the prize among 1200 competitors for the honor of writing the prize play at the National Theater in Germany last year with his play "The Resurrection," and so can be regarded as one who speaks with authority when discussing the theater, and especially a national theater in America.

Harris said to a TRIBUNE representative today:

"The State theater is a dream yet to be realized. It is inevitable. We must have to come to it some day. At present we Americans take the theater as a joke. Our theater is a sort of soothing syrup for growing a mixture of caricature and exaggeration rather than reality."

FOR LAUGHTER.

"In America the theater is looked upon largely as a place for laughter. On the other hand, in Europe, where they have national theaters and where the public have lost their milk teeth, is considered the place where theater life may be best studied. There the theater is an integral part of society and sets the style in thought as well in action. That is never come to pass in America until the public which supports the theater becomes interested in the 'why of life' instead of the 'what of life.'"

"In other words, not until they become interested in reality rather than fiction, superficiality, sensationalism and sentimentalism. When it increases to the point where theater life may be best studied, there the theater is an integral part of society and sets the style in thought as well in action. That is never come to pass in America until the public which supports the theater becomes interested in the 'why of life' instead of the 'what of life.'"

EDITOR MIXES IN WANTS ADDED FIRE POLITICS EQUIPMENT

FAVORS A CERTAIN CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT OF THE WOMEN STUDENTS.

BERKELEY, April 2.—Something new in the way of student politics appears in this morning's issue of the University daily, the Californian. This is in the form of an editorial praising the staid taken by Miss Cornelia Stratton, one of the candidates for president of the women students. The editorial speaks of Miss Stratton's determination to allow no "politics" in her behalf and praises her for it. This is the first time that the Californian has taken a stand for any candidate in its editorial columns and considerable comment has been caused by it among the women students.

"The candidate in question will have no politics no campaign manager and desires to be for her. She wants the students to decide for themselves whether or not they want her. We cannot comment too highly the attitude taken by the candidate. Politics at California has become a complicated, selfish and undesirable activity and the undergraduates indulging in it are very apt to lose their self-respect and the spirit of broadminded fairness which is supposed to be thrown in with college education."

GETS PRIZE IN BATTERED VIOLIN

BERKELEY, April 2.—J. H. Centry, a musician in West Berkeley, traded an alarm clock worth $1.50 a few days ago to an old Scotchman, for a battered violin. Examining the violin the other day he found a mark that indicated that it was a Stradivarius violin No. 1737. He took it to the city where an expert examined it and told him it was a genuine Stradivarius, worth several thousand dollars.

STICKS PITCHFORK INTO SLEEPING MAN

FRUITVALE, April 2.—Dr. J. H. Challen arrived home from making a personal call Saturday morning about 2 o'clock. He started to feed his horses, and thrusting his pitchfork into the hay, struck the body of a man who had secluded himself there to sleep. The man jumped up and gave a yell and fled out of the barn. It is a question which was the most scared, the intruder or the doctor.

SECRETARY FAIRCHILD WILL MAKE ADDRESS

BERKELEY, April 2.—Hon Charles S. Fairchild, who was Secretary of the Treasury under Cleveland, will address the faculty and students of the College of Commerce of the University this afternoon at 4:30 on "Tendencies of Modern Business." Mr. Fairchild is at present in Berkeley for a few days as the guest of President Wheeler.

WILL LECTURE ON FAMOUS GREEK STATUE

BERKELEY, April 2.—Professor Leon J. Richardson will speak in the museum of the university tomorrow at 4 p. m. on the "Hermes of Praxiteles," one of the most valuable statues in the collection recently given by Mrs. Hearst. The lecture will deal with the history of the famous statue, and will be illustrated with lantern slides. It is open to the public.

REVIVAL IN ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA, April 2.—A series of mammoth revival meetings was inaugurated yesterday in the big tent erected at the corner of Oak street and Central avenue, and the churches of the city are united to make the crusade for souls a great success. The evangelist is Rev. Dr. Daskerville, an eloquent and forceful speaker who recently closed a series of meetings in Grangeville, Idaho, which resulted in many conversions. He is assisted in the services by George Moody, a singer who charmed the audiences yesterday.

An immense union meeting was held under the canvas at 11 p. m. yesterday, while a song service brought out a large attendance at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Rev. Dr. Daskerville preached an earnest sermon at 7:30 o'clock last evening. The tent is floored, and arranged to seat nearly 1200 auditors.

TRUSTEES TO HOLD NEW TRACKS ARE A MEETING

APPLICATION FOR A RAILWAY FRANCHISE MAY BE MADE AT SESSION TONIGHT.

ALAMEDA, April 2.—At the regular session of the Board of City Trustees tonight it is expected that W. J. Morgan and his backers, represented by W. H. Hart, will present another application for a franchise for a competing road and ferry system, to be the terminal eventually for an Eastern road. When the City Trustees recently passed an ordinance granting a franchise for fifty years to F. M. Greenwood for an electric line on Clement avenue, with ferry connection, no action was taken on the Morgan application, covering practically the same route. Mr. Morgan and Alexander Hermann, his wealthy backer, have now arranged to submit a new proposition, which it is said will positively be presented at the session of the municipal board this evening. It is possible, also, that the Western Pacific may present a formal application for an entry through Alameda.

SPECIAL MEETING OF TRUSTEES

BERKELEY BOARD WILL ELECT A PRESIDENT PRO-TEM FOR THREE WEEKS.

BERKELEY, April 2.—The Town Board of Trustees will hold a special session tonight to elect a president pro tem to take the place of President Rickard, who left for Los Angeles a couple of days ago. President Rickard will be absent several weeks, during which time the pro-tem president will have all the powers of his position.

A protest from residents of the Berry-Bangs tract will also be presented to the trustees, objecting to the recent order of the board for the improvement of the property by the planting of shade trees to be paid for by a special assessment to be levied on the residents of the tract. Many of the property owners of this district have already planted trees, and they object to paying an assessment to plant trees on their neighbors' property.

TWO RESIDENCES BEING ERECTED

Dr. Robert Dunn of San Francisco and Arthur Caldwell of the Oakland Bank of Savings have begun the erection of two very handsome residences on Loreto and Montecito avenues, in the Central Piedmont tract.

WHIST TOURNAMENT

Loyal people No. 47, Rathbone Sisters, will hold their usual monthly whist tournament tonight at their usual meeting place, Thirteenth and Clay streets (Foresters' Hall). A dozen valuable painted china prizes have been provided by the committee and a good time can be looked for.

TRACTION CO. HAS STANDARD-SIZED ROAD ON SANTA CLARA AVENUE.

ALAMEDA, April 2.—The Oakland Traction Consolidated yesterday completed the standardizing of its 24-mile tracks on Santa Clara avenue as far east as Park street, and at 4:50 p. m. the first new car was operated over the road between Park and Grand streets, making the round trip in ten minutes. Patrons of the road have been considerably inconvenienced for some time during the progress of the work of reconstruction on Santa Clara avenue. Cars will now be run through from the Webster street bridge to Park street. For some time it has been necessary to transfer large times in coming from Oakland by that route, and there were still gaps between two hundred and three hundred men have been employed to rush the work to completion, which course, it is believed, was hastened by the imminence of a strike. It is intended to proceed without delay in work of laying double tracks to High street on Santa Clara avenue. The standardizing of the tracks on Park street north to the canal and beyond will be delayed for some time.

HOLD FUNERAL OF PIONEER

MANY MOURN FOR THE LATE
WILLIAM G. C.
MEYER.

ALAMEDA, April 2.—The funeral of William G. Meyer, a pioneer doctor, took place at 2 o'clock this afternoon from his late residence, 561 Pacific avenue. His death occurred on Saturday morning last, after a protracted illness. Deceased was a native of Germany, aged 74 years 7 months and 15 days. He had resided here for over thirty years.

Surviving him is a widow, Mrs. Emma Meyer and two children—William M. and Emma A. Meyer.

NOTICE TO SCHOOL TEACHERS.

On April 9 the Santa Fe Railway will run a special excursion to the Grand Canyon of Arizona. This excursion will be personally conducted, and the extremely low rate of $30.00 for the round trip will be made. Full information of the trip may be obtained from General Agent J. Warner, General Agent, 1115 Broadway, Oakland. Reservations should be made as early as possible.

AT SIGN OF THE BULL'S HEAD

MOTLEY THROG TO GATHER IN A PARLOR OF THE NA-TIVE SONS.

SAN LEANDRO, April 2.—San Leandro Native Sons and Daughters, at least the sons, will be interested in an account of the meeting of Pacific Parlor No. 10, of San Francisco, last week. Nine candidates were received, among them Fairfax Wheelan, Supervisor Coleman of the new board recently elected, and Coroner Walsh. At the banquet following the initiation the program of speakers included, among others E. J. Lynch, Fairfax Wheelan, Dan Ryan, W. H. Langdon and W. J. Locke of San Leandro. The banquet supper was a genuine "bull's head" affair, with the real bull's head there.

MARRIED.
William E. Fulton, who removed with his parents from San Leandro to Quilcene, Wash., a few months ago, was married in his parents' home, March 14, to Miss Grace E. Petrick, recently of Salinas, Cal., by the local magistrate, L. G. Seitzinger. The house was tastefully decorated and a luncheon was served.

The young couple commenced house-keeping at once in their own home, which Mr. Fulton had built on land recently purchased from the McCardie homestead near by, and which was furnished and ready to move into.

WHIST.
A whist party for the benefit of St. Mary's Convent will be given at St. Joseph's Hall on Monday evening, April 16.

FRUITVALE, April 2.—The two-night dramatic entertainment given by the Fruitvale Forum players Thursday and Friday evenings last, was an immense success. Armory Hall was crowded both evenings and the performances demonstrated what really has often been proved before, that Fruitvale is full of dramatic and musical talent of an excellent grade. The entertainment is to be repeated at the same place Monday evening next, April 2.

A. A. Barber, the undertaker, has become a Woodman, having joined Fruitvale Camp.

The name of the candidate for union high school trustee is Urban A. Lewis. He came within two votes of election at the last—and first—voting.

MISS ETHEL BOURNE AND GUY BORLAND ARE WED OUT OF DOORS AT HAYWARD.

HAYWARD, April 2.—In the presence of more than 100 guests, on the lawn, under a bower of smilax and orange blossoms, on Saturday last, Miss Ethel Bourne, one of the most popular young ladies of Hayward, became Mrs. Guy Howard Borland, while the songs "O Promise Me," sung by Mrs. Blanche King Arnold, and "Thine Only," sung by Mrs. Revalk, with piano accompaniment, lent a deep and pleasant memory to the occasion.

The ceremony occurred at "Esmeralda," the beautiful country home of the bride about a mile from Hayward in the hill section. The bride was dressed in an elaborate white gown, the groom wearing a white flannel outfit costume. Promptly at 12:30 o'clock the bride appeared in the doorway of the residence, where she was met by the groom, who approached from the veranda. Together they walked down the steps of the veranda to the lawn, where, under a bower of smilax and orange blossoms, they stood before the depot. Mrs. Borland, president of the Pacific Theological Seminary, who pronounced the marriage ritual.

There were more than half a hundred guests from Oakland and San Francisco where the bride is well known, and a large party was present from Reno, Nev., the former home of the bride's family. After a short and informal reception at "Esmeralda" immediately after the ceremony, the newly married pair drove to the depot. Mrs. Borland, driving, where they boarded the train bound for Idyllwild and Catalina Island, where they are to spend their honeymoon. They expect to return in about a month, and are to take up their residence at Fresno, where Mr. Borland is superintendent of the government warehouses.

A Case For Arbitration.

The following editorial from the San Francisco Examiner of this morning is so clearly in line with wisdom and fairness, and so responsive to popular sentiment on this side of the bay, that we reproduce it with approval of the suggestions it embodies:

"A strike is always a calamity. A street railroad strike is particularly calamitous, because it inflicts hardship and distress and loss, not only on the parties to it, but in vastly greater measure on the outside public.

"Over in Oakland just now the Traction Syndicate and the street car employees find themselves formed up in line of battle. We are all familiar with the spirit of conflict that moves men to stand the ultimate of what they consider right and just.

"Man is a fighting animal and would ordinarily rather fight for what he deems the essential principles than to abate one jot of his sense of justice. Nevertheless, it must be recorded that every strike involves discomfort and privation, not only to the parties directly concerned, but to the public as well.

"This being the case, it is an urgent thing that the interests of those outside the direct line of fire should be considered.

"Between the company and its employees there is an issue on two propositions—one, the recognition of the union, the other a question of wages.

"Insistence on what one regards as right is a characteristic of many men. Nevertheless it is very evident in this controversy that there exists a highway which both can travel.

"The right of labor to organize is as definitely established as the right of capital to combine. The right of the man who works a fair recompense for his toil has been established by many a strike and many a lockout.

"The company has recognized the public interest in the controversy by finally consenting to a conference at which the various points in conflict may be discussed and determined. This much of a surrender to a higher right must be applauded and approved.

"It is to be hoped that both sides will approach this conference with every hope and intention of coming to an agreement.

"Even if this should fail it would be deplorable if the people of the bay should be subjected to the disaster of a bitter strike. The sinister reports of the importation strikebreakers, barring of car barns and installing of rifles make an unfortunate side to the conference, but despite the warlike character of these preparations, the public, which must bear the brunt of the trouble, should insist on a peaceful solution to the difficulty.

"If the parties to the controversy are unable to agree, why not in outsiders whose judgment is not clouded by resentment or interest?

"A refusal to submit a case to an unprejudiced tribunal is a logical confession of the weakness of the case.

"Arbitration is the highway both parties may travel without surrender of principle or yielding of dignity.

"There are no irreconcilable differences in the Oakland situation. The Examiner hopes that the parties to this controversy will at the matter broadly; will consider neither selfish interests nor pride and will come together in an agreement that will spare the community at large the distress and loss inseparable from a conflict between a big corporation and its employees."

Arriving For All Sides.

The policy of THE TRIBUNE to print all the news fairly and impartially. In pursuance of that policy it will give the public every bit of information regarding the differences between the Oakland Traction Company and its employees, differences which threaten a situation that will entail great inconvenience to the public and inflict loss on the business interests of the community. It will present statements of both sides without reservation and with equal candor. All sides shall be given a full opportunity to be heard. It is a third party to the controversy which shall also be given space to express its views—namely, the people of Oakland.

Every respectable citizen of Oakland, no matter whether he be a member of the Traction Company or an advocate of the side of the carmen, is at liberty to express himself through the columns of this paper. It applies alike to the officers and managers of the Traction Company and to the representatives of the Carmen's Union. Our aim is to keep the public fully informed with respect to every phase of the controversy and the points of disagreement between the contending parties.

The Realty Syndicate are trying to make a deal between the Oakland Traction Company and the carmen. The deal would have the public believe that the carmen are mere diversions. These are mere diversions. The trouble is solely between the carmen, and the onus of it is on the carmen. The Traction Company must keep its employees in this matter, and all the carmen are manipulating silly falsehoods about the eyes of the public.

The annual Pilgrim banquet in New York was made notable by the presence of Earl Grey, Governor General of Canada, who made the occasion still more notable by returning a portrait of Benjamin Franklin, which has been in the possession of the Grey family for one hundred and thirty years. In returning the picture, the noble earl made a glad hand speech which had all the ring of sincerity. There is an element of drollery, however, in the way former Ambassador Joseph H. Choate stated the manner in which the Greys became possessed of Franklin's portrait. During the Revolutionary War General Sir Charles Grey, the present earl's ancestor, was quartered in the Philadelphia residence of Franklin. When he departed Franklin's picture accompanied him. Mr. Choate, with rare felicity, said the portrait got mixed up with General Grey's belongings and was carried off by mistake. This adroit euphemism was appropriate to a glad hand dinner, and quite courteous to the ancestor of the honored guest of the evening, but beneath the polite veneer the discerning can plainly distinguish the coarse fact that General Grey looted the Franklin mansion and carried off the picture as a souvenir if not as plunder. It was retained as a prized possession of the Grey family till the changed sentiment of mankind stamped the manner of its acquisition as infamous. While not questioning Earl Grey's good will in returning the picture, let us not lose sight of the fact that he could no longer retain it with honor. In the same way public sentiment throughout the world commanded J. Pierpont Morgan to return the stolen cone of Ascoli.

The esteemed Fresno Democrat continues to exude large coarse drops of misinformation. Here is a sample: "Jerome is a Republican. But is he a bullheaded peacock, or a real conscientious, brave man, acting what he deems right and proper? At any rate he has the center of the stage and the Republicans would give a good deal if he would make his 'turn' as brief as possible."

Jerome may be a "bullheaded peacock," whatever breed of animal that may be, but he is no Republican. He has always been a Democrat and nothing else. He has a quarrel with Tammany Hall, but so have thousands of other Democrats in New York. However, he has been a consistent supporter of Democratic national and State tickets.

Senator Flint's storage reservoir bill is all right, but it suggests that there is great need of storage accommodations for ulayed-out politicians and back number agitators.

Over 12,000 European immigrants landed in New York one day last week, and the next day the Argonaut nearly had a fit of apoplexy, warning its readers of the impending peril of a Chinese invasion. Has the Argonaut got to seeing yellow?

GOVERNMENT AND CORPORATIONS.

Doubtless many have asked themselves What will be the results of the efforts to reform the railroads and certain great industrial corporations? Official investigations into their acts are being made on all sides. States are trying to free themselves from the greatest of the monopolies. They are forcing lower railroad rates. A measure to compel the common carriers to serve all shippers alike is before Congress. One of the biggest of the food producing "combinations" is on trial. The people, through the press, are demanding that corporate interests shall be forced to deal with the public fairly. What will come of it all?

The country is thoroughly aroused and means to have justice. But the institutions assailed are strongly entrenched. They are virtually united in a common iniquity centering on the railroads. In their service are some of the ablest men in the country—men skilled by years of practice in evasion, subterfuge and legal resourcefulness. They have powerful friends in Congress. They have money enough for the treasury of a world empire.

Will laws be passed that can meet the requirements of the situation? Will they be enforced if passed? Will the legal proceedings now under way afford any appreciable check to existing evils? If the fight is long drawn out, will the present eager spirit of the public endure? If corrective measures are put into effect, will the master schemers who have built up these great money-producing institutions find new ways to accomplish what they are now doing? It may well prove that the fighting has only commenced.

No matter how far off the end of the struggle is, there should be no doubt as to the final result. The offending corporations will themselves make the outcome certain by their own acts. The people are being educated up to a point where secrecy can no longer be possible. Sooner or later they will have their way. That can be depended upon.—Cleveland Leader

LOSING TIME BY BEING PROMPT.

We are inclined to agree with THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE'S dictum that the man who loses the most time in the world is the man who is prompt in keeping his engagements. This conclusion is reached after considerable observation of the tendency of men and women to ignore an appointed time for a business or social function to begin and to straggle in when their convenience is best suited.

We commend this thought to the playgoing public of Reno. We were especially struck with the truth of it a few nights ago when the foremost actress that will appear in Reno this season filled an engagement in the opera house. The performance should have begun at 8 o'clock. There is no reason in the world why the curtain should not go up at that time except for the habit of tardiness, in which so many people indulge. Some do it because of neglect, not caring whether they disturb others and mar some of the passages of the play. Others do it in studied fashion, to arrive late, and come bustling in in lordly fashion. This is the most ridiculous phase of it all. Possibly the "fashionables" would cultivate the virtue of promptness if they were fully aware that what they considered the proper thing was merely boorishness, and that they were making themselves the theme of unkind laughter.

Business engagements are made with the idea that every body concerned is going to be a half hour or more behind time. This is a common remark. "Well, let's set the time for half-past seven. That really means eight o'clock." Now why should it mean eight o'clock? People who can easily fill an engagement at an appointed time will deliberately loiter until at least half an hour beyond the time agreed upon has passed. In the meantime the person who has arrived on time sits there and comes to the natural conclusion that it is true that the man who is prompt is the man who loses time.

There is no excuse for it all in nine cases out of ten. The average man can keep his appointments with the regularity that he arrives at the dinner table in time for his meals, and the women who come rustling in at some social function long after the time set for its beginning would in most cases be on time if it were not for the fact that they are laboring under the delusion that it is proper to be late.

A capable actor is to play at the opera house tomorrow night. He is to present a charming play, which should attract every person in Reno who enjoys a clever thing well done. The curtain should go up on the first act not later than a quarter past eight. In the way of original investigation we suggest that the readers of this editorial take note of the people who come bustling in long after that time.—Reno Gazette.

THE SERPENT.

The lift of mists from out the mountain trees,
The trip of brooks on their capricious way,
The shift of shadows where the grasses play,
The course of clouds along the over seas,
The swing of boughs, which way the wind may please—
These in her thought, Nature, one Summer day,
Entered a shrine of vines and mosses gray,
Where she had wrought a many sorceries,
There taking all this varied grace aside,
She wound it, sentient, in a sinuous coil,
She looked on it, and saw the danger hid
In curved charms unduly multiplied:
But ere she could unmake her fateful toil,
It stung, and to the shuddering grasses slid.

It positively cured me of Rheumatism after others had failed. Sold at Wehert's drug store, Tenth and Washington streets."

STUDYING PLATO.

A new phenomenon is about to be witnessed in English life. Having tried palmistry, crystal gazing, Christian science, bridge and party politics, society has begun to study Plato. A dozen or so of the leading women of the aristocracy, including the Duchess of Sutherland and the Duchess of Marlborough, have formed a committee to organize the "philosophic movement" and Dr. Emil Reich, the well-known historian who lectures in the London universities, is giving a series of addresses, each followed by discussion in which the members will take part. It is expected that this will be merely the prelude to the formation of "philosophic circles" in other grades of society and that the study of Plato will before long become an established feature of London life.

SOCIETY

CHAFING DISH GIRL HOLDS
THE KEY TO A MAN'S HEART

The marriage of Miss Lillian Maud Lane and George Peebles Colgett will take place this evening at half past eight, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Sidney Peterson of East Oakland.

The attractive home of the bride's sister on East Twelfth street will be a floral bower of green and white and the setting for a pretty ceremony. The Rev. E. L. Baker will officiate, the young couple standing under an arch of white carnations and ferns.

The bride's gown will be of soft, white mesaline, her tulle veil caught with a wreath of orange blossoms and her bouquet a shower of white carnations. She will wear a diamond sunburst, the gift of the groom.

The maid of honor is Miss Alma Marshall of San Francisco, and the bridesmaid, Miss Ethel Lane, a sister of the bride. Both attendants will be gowned in white, and will carry white carnations.

William Lane gives the bride into the groom's keeping, and the best man will be William Colgett, brother of the groom.

Henry Medea will act as groomsman. Little Violet Marshall, in a dainty white frock, will strew the pathway of the bride with flowers.

A large reception will follow the ceremony, and one hundred guests will attend the affair. A marquee has been erected on the lawn, where supper will be served.

Mr. Colgett and his bride leave for a two-weeks' honeymoon trip in the South, and on their return will make their home in this city.

The Colgett family are pioneers, having resided here for over thirty-five years, and the young business man is popular with a host of friends.

WEDDING PLANS.

The marriage of Miss Vesta Marie Colby of Berkeley and William Frederick Dornier of Philadelphia will take place Wednesday evening, April 25, at the First Unitarian Church in Berkeley.

The wedding party will consist of Miss Mary Downey, as maid of honor, and the quartet of bridesmaids including Miss Louise Eastman, Miss Ethel Wickson, Miss Adelaide Bangs, Miss Eleanor Merrill.

Jack Cavagnaro of New York will act as best man, and the ushers will be Dan Volkman, Will Gutziow, Nion Tucker, Fred Shingle.

Miss Colby is a daughter of Professor George E. Colby of the State University, and a granddaughter of Frederick Russ, the Claremont capitalist.

Mr. Dornier is at present superintendent of the Philadelphia gas works, and comes of a well-known Eastern family.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Robertson have returned from Juneau, Alaska. Mrs. Robertson, who was formerly Dicka Coolidge, with her husband, made a great success in the North, where they were taking leading soprano and juvenile parts. Mrs. Robertson, who from childhood took part in the Sacred Heart Convent programs, was noted for her musical ability. While at Se-

OLEAN, N. Y., April 2.—Against the wishes of his mother, and being guided by his bride-to-be, R. M. Buck, the blind proprietor of a confectionery store at Renovo, Pa., stole away from home Sunday evening and came to this city where he and Miss Jane Kepler, a clerk in his store, were married by the Rev. McElroy Lister of the First Methodist Church.

The pair returned home today. Mr. Buck lost his eyesight several years ago in a mine explosion.

He has never seen Miss Kepler.

16-YEAR OLD WIFE

OF ONE DAY DIVORCED

Eloped With Youth Three Years
Her Senior, Married, Separated.

CHICAGO, April 2.—The final chapter to a romance which began with an elopement was written in Judge Gibbons' court today, when the court entered a decree of divorce in favor of Mrs. Harriet Young, against Luther C. Young.

The complainant was married when sixteen years old. She is the daughter of Harry M. Moore, president of the wealthy stockyards packing firm of H. B. Moore & Co. Young is employed in the offices of Libby, McNeill & Libby.

According to the story related to Judge Gibbons, he and the complainant eloped to Hammond, Ind., March 1, 1901. At that time Mrs. Young was sixteen years old, while her husband was three years her senior. They lived together but one day, the court was told, when a separation was deemed advisable.

attle the manager of the only theater in Alaska made them an offer to go to Juneau with the company, where they have been for over four months, but her love for California hastened her return. They will become members of one of our leading theaters here on the coast. They are at present with Mrs. Robertson's mother, Dr. Lu Ella Cool-Walker.

AN ENGAGEMENT.

One of the interesting engagements of the month is that of Miss Maude Jackson of Alameda and Dr. Homer Craig of San Francisco.

Miss Jackson is the daughter of Mrs. E. Janet Jackson of Clinton avenue, and is said to be a charming and accomplished girl.

Dr. Craig is a well-known professional man, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Craig and a brother of Mrs. Frederick Wellington Morse of this city.

The young people have a host of friends, and the bride-elect will doubtless be the motif for much entertaining.

No date has been set for the wedding, but it may be an event of the early summer.

AT HOME.

Mrs. Erwin G. Rodolph is "at home" today in her cozy apartments in the Westgate across the bay. She is keeping the first Monday of each month until the summer season.

QUIET WEDDING.

The wedding of Miss Mae Wells, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wells, of 559 Fifty-fifth street, and James H. Sadler of Brooklyn, N. Y., took place in San Jose last Thursday, the Rev. J. Hutsiniller, of the First Methodist Church, officiating.

The happy young couple will make their future home in Santa Cruz, as Mr. Sadler has business interests in that city.

CARD PARTY.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller entertain this evening at a card party, which is also in the nature of a "house-warming" given in their new home on Adams' Point.

PLAY FOR CHARITY.

The charity performance of "The Bachelor's Bride," to be presented next Saturday evening at the California Club is of interest to people on both sides of the bay, since a worthy cause is to be aided, namely, the assistance of Mrs. Richardson and her four children. The words and music are by Miss Marie Keller, and the cast is made up largely of clever amateurs.

The opera will have the same cast as at the Soroka's Club, with one exception, Paul Gerson assuming the role of the bachelor. The following patronesses have the affair in charge: Miss Jennie Blair, Mrs. William A. Boole, Mrs. P. E. Birmingham, Miss Lilla A. Boole, Mrs. George Carr, Mrs. Warren D. Clark, Mrs. W. R. Cluness, Mrs. W. A. Davis, Mrs. Watson D. Fennimore, Mrs. E. Clemens Horst, Miss Kate Hutchinson, Mrs. Clinton Jones, Mrs. L. A. Kelly, Mrs. Clarence Martin, Miss Susan McEwen, Mrs. John Dempster McKee, Mrs. H. M. A. Miller, Mrs. P. C. Sanborn, Mrs. Charles W. Slack, Mrs. Oscar Sutro, Mrs. Arthur E. Wellington, Mrs. James Alva Watt.

The full cast is as follows: The Bachelor, Paul Gerson; Mme. Grundy, Miss Louise Fredheim; Sister Art, Mrs. James Alva Watt; Sister Poetry, Mrs. John Dempster McKee; Sister Music, Miss Ellen Burnell Page; Sister Society, Mrs. Caro'ya Van Benson; Sister Cook, Miss Estelle Marie Jewell. The farce, as before, will be staged and directed by Mr. Gerson.

JUNE WEDDING.

The marriage of John McVey, the popular attorney, and Miss Gettie M. Stoddard of San Francisco will be quietly solemnized on June 6. The couple had planned a secret wedding at San Rafael, but the news confided to a few friends soon became public, and congratulations are pouring in upon the young attorney in the office of Public Administrator Gray.

Miss Stoddard is a charming, popular girl, with a host of friends.

The plans for an absolutely quiet marriage are now vain, but the wedding takes place early in June, and is to be a very pretty and very quiet affair.

GOING ABROAD.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lutgen of Alameda leave shortly for a six months' trip abroad, and are to be the honored guests at several entertainments prior to their departure.

HAS RETURNED.

Miss Lucille Dunham returned Friday on the Siberia, after a delightful stay in Honolulu with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Faxon Bishop. She was accompanied by Miss May Billinger, who will remain here for a while at the guest of Miss Dunham.

HOME CLUB.

Professor Henry Morse Stephens will lecture tomorrow evening at the Home Club, giving one of the most interest-

Here's the Secret, Girls

GET a first-class chafing dish, girls, and learn how to use it! There are few better ways of winning a man's heart. Have you tried it?

Girls, I am going to tell you a secret. It often happens that young women wonder why a young man does not come to the point in the game of proposing. Even after long courtship, how is a man to know whether or not the young lady of his choice is going to make a good housewife?

I don't blame the man for hesitating before he takes the step which may doom him to bad coffee, burnt potatoes, meat served a la sole leather and the other imitations for the rest of his natural life.

Now, what chance has a man to find out which he will need most—a marriage certificate or a coupon for some indigestion cure—or both? Do you see the point girls? If you want him to say things that will guarantee you a happy home show him that you can cook and make him want you for a permanent chef.

Now, don't misunderstand me. I know that you do not have to marry somebody to be a cook and a slave for him. But does it not follow that if you are a good cook yourself you will know how to teach some one to do things for you in the way that they should be done?

Here comes the plan: Get a first-class chafing dish, if you have not one already. Armed with this you are ready for the fray. Then, when he asks you to a supper after the theater, suggest that you can tell him something far better. Take him, with others who may happen to be in the party, to your own home and give him an illustration of a pretty girl cooking.

ANCIENTS USED IT.

Don't turn up your pretty nose over the idea of accomplishing such an object with the aid of a mere chafing dish. This manner of cooking is very ancient and therefore worthy of much respect. Among the ruins of the ancient city of Troy have been found many beautiful specimens of the chafing dish. Some of them were of richly chased silver and gold, although pottery was used as well.

This way of cooking became so popular that a Greek poet writing in the third century B. C., speaks of the skill of his cook, who "cooked a fish so successfully in a chafing dish that he gave him admiring and grateful glances as he turned it in the pan!"

MAN WILL BE GRATEFUL.

You need not expect such gratitude from the victim, but you will get it in multiple form from the man who watches you and eats what you serve to him. You are also fortunate in that you do not have to pay the price described by no less a personage than Cicero, who refers to one of these dishes as having been bought at so great a price that the passerby who heard the money counted out thought that a farm was being sold.

But to return to the after-the-theater supper. Have all your materials ready on a tray near your cooking dish. A neat looking tray covered with a snowy napkin and having all accessories shining must necessarily impress all with the owner's neatness. If you have chosen a chafing dish for its beauty as well as its utility, you will make a charming picture as you deftly

HANDLE IT.

Have a long-spouted can for filling the lamp, and plenty of water in the water pan unless you intend to cook something which will require the heating of the "blazer." In this case, always, whether for deviling, sautéing or broiling, place the "blazer" directly over the flame and never neglect to grease it with a little butter.

An asbestos mat or a little wire toaster can be used for making toast. A kettle will supply water for tea, and with a wooden spoon for stirring your outfit will be complete.

SOME SUGGESTIONS.

Scalloped fish, creamed chicken, omelette, and, of course, Welsh rarebit, are easily brought to a delicious termination in a few minutes if everything has been prepared beforehand.

What man can elicit and watch the girl of his choice, under such circumstances, without seeing firmly painted on his retina the picture of a cozy little flat with the dearest housewife in the world presiding?

Why, girls, it's easy. Where on earth can a white, well-rounded arm be seen to better advantage than lifting off the cover to see if the concoction is done enough? And toast-making becomes simply a dream of grace under such circumstances. Try it.

HUSBANDS---HOW TO TRAIN THEM

Husbands—like any other wild animal—must be trained as soon as they are caught. Otherwise it will be found difficult to eradicate those habits formed, it may be, in the early quarter of the honeymoon. Kindness will, of course, go very far when severer methods fail, and, as every wife knows, one of the first rules in training a husband of any species is to be careful about his diet.

With some husbands, indeed, the diet is of such all-importance that as long as he is kept in good condition he will be found to be tractable, gentle and anxious to please; but if, on the contrary, his meal be overdone, and his vegetables greasy—not to mention cold soup and warm ice—it will be entirely useless to expect any of the best qualities to develop.

If a wife is a vegetarian, a teetotaler, or a simple liver, she had better endeavor to persuade her husband to refrain from similar indulgences, however willing and enthusiastic under honeymoon conditions he may appear to be.

While a husband is still comparatively new, it is best not to show him too frequently your relations; he may become restive, and refuse to perform his prior tricks, or to answer your aunts' questions nicely. And, remember that it is not until you have thoroughly trained your husband that you can with impunity discuss the questions of domestic servants, theology, or your mother's failing health.

Encourage your husband to argue. It decreases his power of resistance, and you can do exactly as you like afterwards.

In any disagreement, no matter what the subject of dispute, make it your duty to show your husband clearly that he has been the aggressor, and make sufficient counter-accusations to bring it home to him that he is a brute and that you are an angel. Do not talk about your rights; take them, and never talk about your wrongs. Remember that a man will face a runaway motor sooner than a scene. But if you deem a scene salutary discipline, let it be an artificial one—the real article to be tabooed.

One of the worst tendencies in a recently acquired husband is that he wishes you to remain on a pedestal—which induces moral cramp. Get down without mentioning it. He will never notice that you have left your pedestal, if you are careful not to let him usurp the empty place—and you will be able to stretch.

Let your admiration of your husband be always flavored by a criticism; he will value the latter more than the former.

Do not let him ever omit the smallest point of etiquette, and remember that a lifting eyebrow is better than a wagging tongue. Animal tames are unanimous in preferring the power of the eye to that of noise, for though the latter intimidates, it also tends to make the brute sulky and intractable.

It has been said that a reformed rake makes the best husband, but you will only find that he is more exacting, unless you take measures to provide him with an outlet. Remember that to foster his minor vices will be to discourage his major sins.

Never marry a man who has not flirted; the boldest husband trainer may tremble before so gigantic a task. If he has never flirted before, there is small hope that it can be inculcated by a wife, especially if the subject has passed the age of twenty-five.

Encourage your husband to attend his club, but never invite him to yours. Women should only invite each other's husbands to their clubs: it is not good taste to parade domestic happiness.

Do not imagine if you flirt that jealousy will recall your husband's straying affections. It will only ease his conscience. On the other hand, never depend on mere goodness; cheerfulness is more attractive than virtue. Any woman can be virtuous, but few can be genuinely cheerful.

If you wish to make your husband present, and still to retain his respect, never buy him tobacco or ties. Imagine what your feelings would be if were to choose you a hat.

Most husbands have a tendency regard a wife's bill as unnecessary expenditure, and not as something which they are proud to pay. A little tact on your part, a well-trained husband will try to settle even your millinery bills.

If an ill-trained husband wishes to economize he usually begins with his wife. Over this you must be firm from the beginning. It is part of a man's lack of logic that he expects his wife to dress better than his best friend's wife on half the pin money. You must correct this impression. Always dress up to your trousers; it makes your husband live up to the honeymoon.

Finally, remember that the lips are mightier than the tongue in matrimonial differences, and that to disagree beautifully is better than to obey dutifully.

DEFENDS THE SHORT SLEEVES IN OFFICE WORK

Editor Woman's Page, TRIBUNE: In regard to the question of short sleeves for business women, I would like to say a few words from a stenographer's standpoint. In the first place, I can see no reason why the "leading modiste of the city" should call a business woman "ridiculous" because she wears short sleeves in an office when it is permissible for others to wear them at all places. We now see house dresses, afternoon dresses, street dresses and evening dresses made in this style—and, in fact, veils are made in any other way. If the objection is that the business woman works in company with men—why not object to the use of half sleeve by young ladies in schools, colleges, etc., as well?

I believe the reason that this style has gained so much favor is on account of the comfort it affords; and if you will for one moment consider the hot and dusty office in the middle of a summer afternoon—filled with people—the weary stenographer given at the last possible moment twenty or twenty-five letters of various lengths that must catch the evening mail, you will realize what the freedom of the short sleeve might mean to one who uses hands and arms constantly.

And, it is a matter of economy—which is something the business woman must practice. In the summer time the laundry bill runs high—and in office work the cuffs are the first to show usage; and a day's extra wear on each waist will amount to something by the time the summer is over.

I take exception to the remark made in regard to it not being necessary for the girl in an office to wear the latest modes. It is necessary that she look neat and trim; and, in order to do so, with the hard wear her clothes necessarily get, she must buy more carefully than those who can afford to buy three or four gowns at a time. And surely very few people buy clothes of last year's cut—certainly not the average stenographer, who keeps up-to-date in her ideas of dress just as she is expected to keep up-to-date in her business.

Fashion makes many things permissible that might not otherwise be permissible; and I think that the stenographer will take advantage of the comfort given by this new sleeve, in spite of the censure of those who seem to delight in picking her out as a butt for criticism.

A STENOGRAPHER.

JUST TO KNOW THAT SOMEONE CARES.

TO know that Someone cares when I Am wronged by those I trust, That Someone stands with flashing eye When tale is told unjust, Is recompense for all the ills My heart in anguish bears— It sends rejuvenating thrills To know that Someone cares

IT soothes the feverish brow of pain, And from quiescent state I'm nerved to tilt my lance again For one more bout with Fate; It stunts with stars Grief's blackest night, Yea, subtler charm it bears Of making heavy burdens light, To know that Someone cares.

ALTHOUGH this Someone one's light and frail, A giant's strength lends To me when I am near to fail: She counters, parries, fends, So many blows from reaching me, And each that does she shares; It's half the battle you'll agree To know that Someone cares! —ROY FARRELL GREEN.

ing talks of the series on "The Romantic Historians: Lamartine, Michelet, Froude, Motley, Prescott and Parkman; the place of Historical Fiction, Scott and Dumas."

Next Thursday evening there will be a program which John Metcalf has prepared of his own compositions, by special request.

At the business meeting which precedes the musical program the annual election of officers will be held. The ticket contains the following list of names as officers for the ensuing year: President, Miss Ethel Moore; first vice-president, Miss Grace Barnard; second vice-president, Mrs. John Fule; third vice-president, Miss Marion Walsh; recording secretary, Mrs. W. J. Wilcox; corresponding secretary, Mrs. F. F. Barbour; business secretary, Miss Carolyn Hawley; financial secretary, Mrs. F. T. Miller; treasurer, Mrs. Harmon Bell. The new membership committee will include Miss Mary Almond, Mrs. G. E. Brinkerhoff, Mrs. C. Armes Jr., Mrs. J. B. Richardson, Mrs. Bernard F. Miller.

After the election of officers the annual dinner will be given at 8 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. W. J. Wilcox.

CLUB WANTS BOTH SEALS AND OAKS NO FREE SITE WIN

"We do not care for a free site for our new clubhouse. There are too many restrictions connected with these offers."

This spoke C. J. Heeseman, chairman of the committee to arrange for a club home for the Alameda County Automobile Association, to a TRIBUNE reporter in discussing the situation in reference to that project.

The Automobile Association decided some time ago to build a clubhouse, and selected Hayward, or somewhere along the Hayward road, as the general vicinity for the location of the same. Since then the committee has been flooded with offers of a site, at various figures, and one or two of the communicants proposed to donate the land for the home free.

"But we don't want these free places," said Mr. Heeseman. "We prefer to pay for our location. The offers of sites for nothing are hedged about with too many conditions to suit. The donors want us to bind ourselves to put up a building of a certain value and of certain styles, which are matters we prefer to keep under our own discretion. We will pay for our land, and then we can do as we like about the balance."

EXAMINED PLANS.

"No, we have not accepted any plans as yet," went on Mr. Heeseman. "We have examined some, but there is no use in accepting any until we know just how we stand financially and just what we are going to have to fall back on. When we can tell how much we are going to be able to spend on the proposition, then we shall be in a position to figure on the style of house we will erect."

"We are now waiting on a report of our ways and means committee, which is struggling with the question of finance. Our plan is going through, all right, but we require some time to work out the details and to get our financial basis properly established. The ways and means committee is the all-important one, and we must abide awhile until we hear its report."

JEFFRIES MAY FIGHT ONCE MORE

LOS ANGELES, April 2.—Jim Jeffries stated in an interview that he had not voluntarily retired from the ring, but had been forced into retirement because there was no one in the world who could give him a chance to beat him.

He also said that if the public found a heavyweight who he believed had a chance with him he would come out of retirement and defend his title if sufficient financial inducement were offered.

U. C. MAN FOR TRIP TO ATHENS

BERKELEY, April 2.—Robert Edgren, of the '94 class at the University of California, has been chosen as one of a team of thirty Americans, taken from all sections of the country, to represent the United States in the international games which will be held in Athens, April 22 to May 2, 1906.

Edgren, a member of the California team, was chosen to go to Athens, Greece, to represent the United States in the international games which will be held in Athens, April 22 to May 2, 1906.

CALIFORNIA WILL MEET SOUTHERNERS TOMORROW

BERKELEY, April 2.—The California team will meet a very hard team tomorrow when they play the local oval against the all-star team of the Southern California college athletes.

These men from the southern part of the state are from all accounts a bunch of winners. They had a little tilt with the Cardinal on Friday last, and they succeeded in beating the Stanford team to the tune of 53 to 5. Of course, the Palo Alto aggregation was weakened to a considerable degree by the absence of the freshmen who were testing for their meet with the Cardinal this morning.

Nevertheless, the Southerners would have made things pretty lively and it is doubtful if the Stanford team would come out on the credit side of the ledger even if their freshmen had entered the meet.

GOOD SHOWING.

The contest was held in the mud, but the showing of the combined southern team was truly remarkable. Bird of Occidental College was the star of the meet. On a wet and slushy track he negotiated the hundred yard dash in the fastest time, under the conditions of 16 to 2.5. He did the 220 in 23 1-5. But it was in the quarter mile that Bird was a wonder. His time for the distance was 52 1-5, a wonderful showing. In the two mile also, Stanford had a fight for every inch of the way. Nash, the Cardinal man, for the event, having a hard time of it to cross the tape first.

The last quarter of a mile was a fight all the way. Bird of Occidental came out on a clip that for a few moments looked dangerous, but he could do no more than get abreast of Nash. All up the home stretch it was a hard sprint, and the Stanford men finished about four yards ahead. The time of 10:17 sets a new Stanford track record and comes within six seconds of the Stanford-California intercollegiate record.

This notwithstanding the fact that the runners' feet splattered mud at every bound. Hagerman of Occidental came off fine work for his college, taking first in the high hurdles and broad jump and third in the low hurdles, besides making a good quarter in the relay.

ATHLETES GATHER TO DEPART FOR ATHENS

NEW YORK, April 2.—The final roll call of the American Olympic team will be made at the New York Athletic Club at 5 o'clock this afternoon, when all the members of the team to sail tomorrow on the Barbarossa for Athens, via Naples, will be gathered together. All but two are now in New York—A. B. Glover, the Purdue University pole vaulter, and Eli R. Parsons, the Yale high jumper, being scheduled to arrive during the day. Four of the team reached the city yesterday and were quartered at the New York Athletic Club, while another arrived at midnight.

The first to reach the city were the Chicago University boys, J. D. Anthony and Hugo Friend. Both in splendid condition and looked to sprint for Olympic championships tomorrow. Friend is in better shape than he has been in a year, and expects to do better in both hurdle and broad jump than he has ever done in competition.

Last year when he was bothered by a sprained ankle he jumped 22 feet 11 inches, while in practice prior to his accident he had cleared 22 feet 8 inches. He expects to reach or better the latter figure at Athens.

Lightbody has been running indoors at Chicago all winter.

FROM BOSTON.

The second pair to arrive were from Boston, R. G. Leavitt, the old Williams' hurdler, now representing the Boston Athletic Association, and J. J. Fowler, the Cambridgeport Gymnasium, came in early in the afternoon. Fowler met Forsyth, the St. Louis long distance man, at the clubhouse and the two were plainly interested in each other. Leavitt said he thought he would be able to equal his college record of 15 4-5 in the high hurdles and might beat his low hurdle mark.

H. J. Bornemann, the Chicago Athletic Association diver, got in at midnight making the last of the lot to come except Parsons and Glover.

THREE BIG GOES AT CLUB

It is seldom that a club is so fortunate in having a card such as the Reliance Club will have for its next monthly exhibition, to be held Tuesday, April 10. Three of the matches are really good enough to be called main events.

Jack Burk has been promised a match with George Herbert, the last waterweight who Tim McGrath says will some day be champion in his class. Herberts beat Kid Kraatz in 34 time the other evening at Vallejo, so he and Burk would make a great contest. Both Burk and Herbert have met Joe Thomas, who is now the recognized champion of the coast.

Jack Burk suffered defeat at his hands, but Burk has been anxious to get on again with him ever since the last meeting. Burk at that time was anything but a well man. He was suffering from malaria and would not have gone on with the contest had it not been that he did not wish to disappoint the managers of the club. For this reason he is anxious to box Herberts, as the winner will have a good chance to meet Thomas for the championship of the coast.

Big Chris Hampton is training for the first time, as he realizes that he must be in good condition for his coming contest. Chris has never trained before and should show better than ever when he is in good condition.

Jack Brock, who is to meet him, is training every day at the Central Athletic Club and invites all those who wish to come up and put the gloves on with him.

Another special event is to be between Charlie Lavigne of Pinole and Danny Lynch, the first young San Francisco boy. These boys should put up a contest that will keep the spectators in a thrill from the start to the finish.

HOLD TRYOUTS FOR TENNIS TEAM

BERKELEY, April 2.—The tryout for the intercollegiate tennis team will be held this week. These tryouts, delayed for many weeks by rain and the poor condition of the court, come unusually early this year.

The court has now been repaired and the difficulties which have hitherto been experienced by the players seem to be at an end. The sand has been cleared from the court and a new net provided. Every effort will be made to put the court in the best possible shape.

California's chances in tennis seem to be unusually bright this year. With three intercollegiate players, Wayne, Varlet and Baker, it seems certain that one more victory will be annexed to the long line held by the Blue and Gold.

HODGES OUT.

Hodges, who was Stanford's mainstay and captain-elect, will, on the other hand, be unable to participate in the matches this year.

The matches to be held this week are as follows: Wayne, '91, vs. Brockenfeld, '93; Galkaher, '98, vs. Birdall, '95; Whitaker, '97, vs. Baker, '96; Lovell, '97, vs. Miles, '98; winner of Lumbard, '98, vs. Clinch, '90; match plays Cheney, '98; Bush, '97, vs. Finner, '98; and Page, '97, vs. McKay, '98; Varlet, '96, vs. Page, '98.

The unsettled condition of the weather makes it impossible to schedule the matches in advance. For the present the managers will make up the matches from day to day and notify the players by telephone.

BATTLING NELSON TELLS OF EXPERIENCE WITH HERRERA

NEW YORK, April 2.—Batling Nelson, who is to fight Aurelio Herrera in Los Angeles in May, has gone to New Orleans to fill a short engagement on the stage, but before going he delivered himself of his ideas as to the result of the proposed battle.

"What do you think of your coming fight with Herrera?" the Battler was asked.

Nelson smiled and then launched forth and told of his experiences with Herrera.

"I have known Herrera for over two years," said Nelson. "When I first met him I was a preliminary fighter around Chicago and Milwaukee. In fact, I went anywhere I thought I could get a scrap. Somehow or other they did not think well enough of me to put me in a star bout, and I had to take anything that was offered."

"At that time twenty-five dollars for a preliminary bout was considered big money by me. When I was not fighting I had to hustle hard to make both ends meet, and I was often engaged by better known fighters than took part in main events. Among these men were Tommy Ryan, Jack Root, Benny Tanager, Aurelio Herrera, and other well known stars of the ring. They always engaged me because they knew that I would give them a good workout and would never complain about getting handled too roughly. You can bet that I took many a hard punch during my apprenticeship."

"I remember well one afternoon while Ryan and I were boxing in the gymnasium, he floored me three or four times. That same day he showed me one or two tricks that have been of great benefit to me during my career in the ring. And I must certainly say that Ryan knows the fighting game."

HERRERA'S PARTNER.

"Herrera came to Chicago about this time and engaged me as his sparring partner. After boxing with him for a week he turned loose on me one afternoon and we both mixed it in good style. In fact, we went as hard as we could. I took several pretty hard punches, but at the end of the four rounds Herrera was more willing to stop than I was."

"When the fight was over I felt cock sure that I had his number. I felt that I would be a certain victor over him at any distance. Herrera won the fight and I helped to prepare him for, and then I tried my best to get on a bad fight with him. But I had no manager or press agent to extol me to the skies, and my efforts were laughed at by the matchmakers. I was not discouraged, so I kept right after the Mexican until finally, to my great joy, I was matched to fight him in Butte, Mont., on September 6, 1904. The fight was scheduled for twenty rounds and it went the distance."

WON DECISION.

"I want to give all the credit to the Mexican that is coming to him. He gave me a tough fight. But I gave him an awful beating, and at the finish the referee promptly awarded me the decision. In the fourth round Herrera floored me good and hard, but before the bell sounded for that round I had him very groggy and he was glad to go to his corner. This fight was conducted by Billy Nolan, my present manager, as he handled all the big contests in Montana."

"Herrera is the 'candy kid' when it comes to punching. And he can slip one over from a distance of only six inches and will shake a fellow from head to foot. His left hand won't do any great damage, but if the right one connects in the right place it is certain for his opponent. I can truthfully say that he can punch harder than any lightweight in the ring, barring none, and I have faced about all the best men in this class."

"I know Herrera likes his whiskey and strong cigars (the stronger the better), but when he gets into a ring he is always lathered and you have to keep your eyes open for his sleep producer."

NOT WORRIED.

"Now, as to my opinion as to whether I can beat him in our coming fight, all I have to say is that I whipped him when I was his sparring partner, gave him an awful beating in our twenty-round fight and am equally confident that I will again get the better of him. I have proved since our Butte engagement, while he certainly has not. I should say he is about the same, with, perhaps, a little more confidence in himself. I am seven or eight years his junior and have more experience than he. Any man would be predicting to my friends that I will be returned the winner of this fight."

"How long it will go I do not know, and you can depend on it that I will try to end the fight as quickly as possible. But don't think for a minute that I expect to get the decision without plenty of trouble from the Mexican. Another thing is that Herrera is very game and can take a good punching, as was shown in our last battle. Any man would have something to boast of after getting the better of Aurelio Herrera."

FORMER O. H. S. ATHLETE LOSES LIMBS IN WRECK

According to information received by Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fickes, of 832 Thirtieth street, Oakland, their son, Edward M. Fickes, who was formerly a student and track athlete of the Oakland High School, has been injured in a railroad wreck in Kansas to such an extent that it has been necessary to amputate one of his legs and one of his arms.

Young Fickes left here some time ago for Goldfield, Nevada, and apparently had decided to journey farther eastward when the accident occurred. The parents received a telegram from the Santa Fe Railway Company, giving the above information, but furnished no further particulars. They are almost prostrated, of course, over the details of the distressing affair.

Fickes was a prominent member of the O. H. S. track team in the spring of 1904, and graduated from the school last year. He was an excellent runner at a half-mile distance, and took second in this event at the B. C. L. meet. Finishing third in the A. A. L. contests.

He was quite popular with his fellow students and athletes, and the news of his accident will be a decided shock to them.

SANTA CLARAS OBJECT TO PERRINE AND SCHOFIELD

Apparently there is to be some trouble before the final game of the baseball series between the Phoenix team of St. Mary's College and the Santa Clara College nine is played at Idora Park next Thursday afternoon.

The Santa Clarans are evidently determined to win the game and the series at all hazards, and to this end they have objected to the umpiring of "Bull" Perrine and the playing of Schofield at first base for St. Mary's.

Those who saw Perrine's work in the previous game can scarcely claim that he gave anything but a fair deal to both sides and the St. Mary's contingent will vigorously oppose any change. The Santa Clara crowd wishes to have a San Jose man handle the indicator. The written agreement provides for Perrine to act.

As to Schofield, it is admitted that he has signed with San Francisco, but the Santa Clarans are to use Walters, who has signed with Fresno, so the locals will contend strongly for Schofield's retention.

Brother Joseph, manager of the Phoenix team, will go to San Jose tonight to settle these disputed points.

Thursday's game, which is to commence at 2:30 o'clock, will be the third of the great series.

St. Mary's won the first game by a score of 1 to 0, and lost the second game in the eighth inning, when Santa Clara squeezed in the winning run. The teams are so well matched that it is impossible to forecast the result of the deciding game, but it is certain that, no matter who wins, the contest will be an exhibition of the national game which will be well worth going to see.

The players of these two institutions are constantly practicing and they have developed team work to a point which would win games for professional teams.

As to Schofield, it is admitted that he has signed with San Francisco, but the Santa Clarans are to use Walters, who has signed with Fresno, so the locals will contend strongly for Schofield's retention.

BASKET BALL GAMES AT CLUB

A large audience, considering the inclemency of the weather, witnessed two clever games of basketball at the Reliance Athletic Club Saturday night, one between the girls' team of the Berkeley High School, and the team of the Women's Athletic Association of San Mateo, the other between the Reliance and U. C. fives.

The Berkeley girls were defeated by the San Mateo maidens by a score of 11 to 6. The game was an exciting one from start to finish, but the Berkeley team was handicapped by lack of practice, and by the fact that their team work was not as thorough as that displayed by the players from across the bay.

Following the game, Dick Williamson, the crack bicyclist of the Reliance Club, gave a clever exhibition of trick riding and was generously applauded.

The feature event of the evening was the game of basketball between the Reliance team and the university fives. Both teams started out with the evident intention of playing their individual best, and so equal was the playing that the final score was 20 to 19, in favor of the Reliance Club.

RELIANCE CLUB TO HOLD JINKS

The much heralded "jinks" of the Reliance Athletic Club is to be held next Wednesday evening in the big "jinks" room of the club and a program of attractive numbers has been arranged for the event as follows:

Overture: duet, Messrs. Stanley and McVey; one act curtain raiser, "The Decision," written by Thomas G. Springer, Messrs. Springer and Shirks; solo, Charles Parker; dancing, C. Hughes; German monologue; guitar solo; monologue, by Jack Sheehan; Reliance Quartet, selections; Messrs. McVey, Stanley, Fingone and Redfield; magic, A. H. Shirks.

The affair promises to be very enjoyable. Refreshments are to be served and a general good time indulged in. The jinks is invitational, each member being permitted to bring a friend.

POWELL DROPS OUT OF THE RACE

BERKELEY, April 2.—W. A. Powell, '02, has dropped out of the race for graduate manager which leave the fight a two-cornered one. The two candidates still in the running are L. D. Bohnett, '06, and O. F. Snedigar, '05.

The candidates for president of the Associated Students are R. F. Merritt, '07, and A. H. Van Sant, '07. George Jones, '07, is the only candidate out for vice-president, and R. C. Farwell, '06, is apparently the only one in the field for the office of secretary.

The nomination of officers will be held tomorrow at 4 p. m. in Harmon gymnasium. Undergraduates who have not paid their Associated Student dues may do so at the Co-op up to 12 o'clock tomorrow noon. The election will be held Friday.

Billy Kane, who figured in a trade with Des Moines, has been called back, and in case Seattle cannot get Mohler it is probable that Hall will use Kane at second.

The Seattle players are still doing a lot of road work. Hall has been reducing flesh at a great rate, and will be in good shape when the season opens.

Do not suffer from back headache a moment longer. It is not necessary. Carter's Little Liver Pills will cure you. Dose, one little pill, 3 or 4 times a day. Small pills.

SMITH BAD ACTOR AS MASCOT

H. E. Smith, the Oakland alley bowler, may be a wonder with the gutta percha spheres, and able to roll up 300 scores almost whenever the mood seizes him, but the members of the Fabs team declare he is sadly lacking in the qualities that go to make up a first class mascot.

Perhaps it is because Smith is new at the mascot business; maybe the crack bowler wasn't trying to exert his powers in that line; it may even be possible that some counter influence was working too strongly for Smith to get in action—but, whatever the cause, he was anything but a success in his new role last Friday night, and the members of the Fabs five, over whom his shadow hovered, declare he shall fill the post for them no more forever.

HIMSELF, ALSO.

Not only did Smith have a disastrous effect, apparently, on those whom he essayed to aid, but his influence extended to the realm of his own affairs, and before the thing was ended he decided that he would never again be caught with a mascot's sign attached to him.

The members of the Fabs team went to Berkeley the other night to meet the Buffaloes on the Weill alleys. Smith went along as mascot. They had scarcely started when the heavens began to give forth a seepy drizzle, and the frowns of nature made the players dubious.

AWFUL MARGIN.

And well they might be, for, although they lost the first game by only two pins, and managed to win the second one, in the third they were snowed under by the awful margin of 120 pins!

Sadly the bowlers gathered themselves and their belongings together and prepared to tie themselves homeward and forget their troubles in the sleep that brings oblivion. But that pleasant occupation was not to be theirs for a time at least.

POWER OFF.

The power for the electric cars was off, the streets along the line were devoid of lighted, moving coaches, and the Oaklanders began to wonder if the strike had begun while they were indoors.

When the power returned they found that a car had left the track where the sand and gravel had covered the rails, and there was no navigation in that direction. Another line was tried, but soon another obstruction of the same sort was reached and the visitors had to alight again. Finally, after numerous discouraging trials the boys decided to walk home and departed in great disgust, leaving Smith to make further efforts to save himself from a forced march.

MANY TRANSFERS.

He at last managed to get a car by way of West Berkeley and San Pablo avenue, transferring back on Telegraph avenue when he arrived down town, but meanwhile he had accumulated seven transfers that were unused, having been compelled to walk from one line to another in quest of transportation.

The others reached home at ten o'clock a. m. They insist that hereafter they will demand references when they accept the services of untried chaperons.

NEW FOOTBALL RULES GAIN IN FAVOR

CHICAGO, April 2.—New rules adopted by the combined football committees were received with favor at the University of Chicago yesterday. Sentiment strongly in favor of the new code was expressed by many of the athletic and athletic authorities, while not a few of the faculty said they believed the majority of the students of the game now would be obliterated.

Faster football, more open play, perhaps a more successful game, in which punting and open field running will tend to produce more sensational features than before, together with a lessening of the "death rate" and minor injuries, it is believed, will result from the changes made by the committee.

FEWER INJURIES.

"I believe the changes will be beneficial," said Dr. J. E. Raycroft, the director of athletics. "The ten yards rule gained instead of five will be an interesting experiment, and should, on the whole, tend to eliminate close play and constant line plunging. The regulation on hurdlings and tackling below the knees ought to result in a reduction of injuries."

"One notable result is likely to be a greater amount of punting. Spectators like to see the ball shift back and forth, and the opening of the game in this manner, it seems to me, will tend to make it more popular than before. I do not believe the game will be harmed seriously, though, perhaps, there are some minor points that could be improved upon."

Do not suffer from back headache a moment longer. It is not necessary. Carter's Little Liver Pills will cure you. Dose, one little pill, 3 or 4 times a day. Small pills.

COAL OPERATORS SAID TO BE CONSIDERING FINAL BREAK WITH UNION.

CHARLES BAYLOR WAS WEARY OF LIFE IN THE NORTH.

GATHER IN LARGE NUMBERS AND DEMONSTRATE PRESS AND PUBLIC.

NEW YORK, April 2.—The Herald today reports that the anthracite end of the coal strike will again shift to New York tomorrow morning, when the joint subcommittee of operators and miners will convene here in another effort to find a basis of settlement for the dispute in the hard coal fields, and it is made more interesting by the report that the operators may seize the opportunity to finally break with Mitchell and declare for the open shop.

So far as the operators are concerned, they do not expect to come to any understanding satisfactory to Mitchell and his men. "No proposals to make," is the operators' stand. They will simply listen to what Mitchell's committee may have to offer in the way of new demands or in modification of their former demands, and then it is believed that they will again offer to renew for another three years the recent contract with the union. No one expects that Mitchell will think for a moment of accepting a renewal of the old wage contract.

The present strike may be seized upon by the operators as an opportune time for a final effort to break up union control in the anthracite fields. Several of the operators are known to be enthusiastically in favor of establishing the open shop in their colonies at any cost, and have gone on record as favoring the open shop policy. It has been hinted within the last two days that in order to insure an open shop victory the operators are likely to offer an increase in wages to such men as they desire, but upon the specific understanding that they go to work as individuals and not as members of the Mine Workers of America.

WOMAN'S CIVIC CLUB
HOLDS A MEETING

The Woman's Civic Club met at 3 p. m. in the rooms of the Palette, Lyre and Pen Club, 462 1/2 Thirteenth street. Mrs. J. D. Rice, recently from Ralston, Cook Island, addressed the club, subject, "Missionary Experience in the South Sea Islands."

FIRE IN SPOKANE.

SPOKANE, Wash., April 1.—Fire in the Marion Block, part of the Tull estate which has been in litigation for years, caused damage of between $30,000 and $40,000 last night. The stock of the Allen Shoe Company suffered two-thirds of its loss. In the block is the Cinegraph Theater, a 10-cent show, which was crowded with spectators when the alarm was turned in. The manager ordered some coming from the basement, ordered the curtain rung down in the middle of a comedian's turn, and the audience was left out in perfect order, unconscious of the danger. The block is to be placed under the hammer this month to satisfy the claims of one of the Tull heirs.

NEW YORK, April 2.—The Grand Central Palace was crowded yesterday with anarchists and sympathizers gathered to commemorate the life of the late Johann Most.

Lucy Parsons, widow of Albert Parsons, one of the executed Chicago anarchists, was present and spoke. The speakers were many and of many languages. Red banners, and feathers in red hats of many women, red neckties, and red badges for the men and the blue coats of more than a hundred policemen gave color to the assemblage. The reporters were denounced as the hirelings of the capitalist element. Abraham Isaac presided, and in his opening address declared:

"Most loved justice and truth, and for no other reason he was hounded and persecuted. Had he lived 2000 years ago he would have been crucified. As it was he only got ten years in prison."

Emma Goldman, wearing a black gown, bare-headed and bare-throated, denounced the press. Lucy Parsons referred to the bomb throwing in Chicago as "an explosion which rent this capitalistic country."

"They hated Most," she said, "because he tore the veil of hypocrisy from society with ruthless hand and said to the proletariat, 'Look behind the veil and see the devils bred in hell with hearts of stone.'"

"We have burned our bridges behind us. I despise the civilization which sends 1,700,000 children to work in the factories. But the spirit of liberty is abroad. There never has been a time when there was so much unrest in the world and from this unrest will be born the sturdy child of liberty."

A collection was taken for the fund to educate Most's children.

TELLS OF FUTURE
OF PORTO RICO

NEW YORK, April 2.—Governor Beekman Whitford of Porto Rico, before leaving for Washington, last night, spoke optimistically of his island home. He said: "The condition of the island at present is good with the exception of the coffee industry. There is a great need for a market for Porto Rican coffee, which is considered by many nations in Europe, especially Spain, France and Germany, to be the peer of any in the market. If this market could be established the outlook would be encouraging."

"We are going to have a larger sugar crop this year than last year, when we had the largest in the history of the island. The tobacco crop, too, will be double that of last year. There is a ready market for it in the United States, and some excellent cigars are turned out."

"Porto Rico is getting to be more and more of a winter resort. More than 200 miles of macadamized roads give an excellent opportunity for automobile driving. The hills and sharp turns in the roads prevent very high speed, so accidents are few. There have been no fatalities in the twenty months I have been there."

STRIKERS ARE IDLE

Coal Mines Shut Down,
With 53,000 Men in Illinois-Out of Work.

CHICAGO, April 2.—Without demonstration of any kind, but quietly as for a holiday, 250 coal mines in Illinois are closing down today. The 53,000 miners employed in the shafts will remain at their homes in pursuance of the strike instructions issued from the Springfield headquarters. Coal digging will come to an abrupt standstill practically throughout the State.

Operators in Chicago announced yesterday that no precautions have been taken to provide for protection. The operators have faith in the promises of President Perry of the local district that order will be observed among the strikers.

Small forces of men, such as engineers, firemen and pumpmen, will be kept at work at each mine to guard against injury to the property from natural causes. This will require perhaps from twenty to fifty men at each shaft.

It will be necessary to keep the pumps working continually, because water collects rapidly in the underground chambers of the mines and destroys them. Other workmen will be kept busy repairing the timbering underground to prevent the falling in of roofs and slide walls. The mine owners, who are usually members of the union, will be allowed to superintend the work of preserving the properties.

In the majority of cases the miners live in houses owned by the companies. It is planned that they shall continue to occupy the houses and that they shall be paid rent payments will not be regarded as grounds for evicting them during the process of the strike.

DECISION AWAITING
SCULPTOR'S RECOVERY

NEW YORK, April 2.—It was learned yesterday that Augustus St. Gaudens, the sculptor, whose home and studio are at Windsor, Conn., had recently been confined for a week in a hospital in Brookline, Mass., where he underwent treatment for sciatica. Meanwhile about fifty sculptors of Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis, Philadelphia, Boston, New York and Paris have been anxiously awaiting a decision in the competition for a $10,000 commission for a bronze statue of Major-General Alexander Macomb. The National Society of United States Daughters of 1812, State of Michigan, purpose to erect on the Washington boulevard, in the city of Detroit, a statue of the general of heroic size.

The models were originally sent to the Detroit Museum of Art, where they were to be judged by a commission of experts, comprising Charles P. McKim, Daniel H. Burnham of Chicago and Augustus St. Gaudens. In order, however, to save the convenience of Mr. McKim and St. Gaudens, the models were brought to New York recently and stored at the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

It was said yesterday that the vote of St. Gaudens, as the sculptor member of the commission, would undoubtedly determine the winner of the contest.

St. Gaudens, however, has only recently left the hospital and may not be able to come to New York for a month. As the models may have to be moved from the museum, it was said yesterday that St. Gaudens might call upon Daniel C. French to act in his place.

DRUIDS HOLD A
"HOME SOCIAL"

Live Oak Chapter U. A. O. D. held its first home social Friday evening, March 30, in Foresters' hall. Though raining hard, the inclement weather did not deter many people from attending and having a good time.

There was dancing, card-playing, singing and playing, and other games to amuse those present. The Misses Fisher entertained by singing and playing. Miss H. Kunze rendered several vocal and instrumental solos. E. R. Allen ("Barney Bernard in disguise") was also there doing some of his characteristic stunts. After this entertainment was concluded, the party adjourned to the banquet room where the inner man was soon satisfied with the elegant spread that had been prepared.

The officers of the chapter are: Chief Druid, F. B. Smith; chief bard, E. R. Alden; secretary, W. A. Ghirardelli; treasurer, D. M. Menoia; guide, C. Camozzi; guard, J. Lurati; sentinel, H. Boscazzoli; past chief druid, and also supreme district deputy, George Moenning.

SWEDISH-AMERICAN
CLUB TO ASSEMBLE

The fourth session of the sixteenth term of the Swedish American Republican Club of Alameda county will be held in Odd Fellows Hall, Eleventh and Franklin streets, Tuesday, April 3d, at 8 p. m. Several questions of importance will come before the club.

HON. DAVID O. ROBINSON

Benefited by Vinol After All Other Medicines Had Failed.

The Hon. David O. Robinson, county treasurer of Frankfort, Ky., writes: "I was very run down from overwork, and suffered from indigestion and a severe nervous trouble. The medicines prescribed all failed to help me, and I could not take any more of them. I was very nervous and my stomach was very bad. One of our county officials told me about your delicious cod liver preparation, Vinol, and what it had done for him. I decided to try it, and in a remarkably short time I was a well man. Vinol built me up, cured my stomach and nervous trouble and I have not been so well for years."

Mr. Specht of The Owl Drug Company says: "Vinol cures conditions like this because it positively contains in a highly concentrated form all of the body-building and body-building properties of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, and without a drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work."

"We ask every run down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person suffering from indigestion, colds, hanging on from subacute or chronic coughs, consumption to try Vinol on our guarantee to return your money if it fails to give satisfaction."—The Owl Drug Co.

STRUGGLE FOR LIFE

Aeronaut Descends From Balloon in Path of Oncoming Train.

CHICAGO, April 2.—Battling with adverse currents of air, which were blowing him directly in front of an Illinois Central express train, as he descended 5000 feet from a balloon to the earth in a flimsy parachute, William Mattery, a French aeronaut, yesterday fought for his life while 5000 people watched the struggle.

The engineer of the train saw the aeronaut less than 200 feet in the air above him, descending directly before his train. He applied the airbrake, but knew that unless Mattery conquered the air currents he was powerless to save him from death.

The aeronaut fought with every muscle in his body. He swung himself back and forth on his little transverse, he kicked, and made every effort possible to swerve his parachute away from the path of the train.

BARELY MISSES TRAIN.

Suddenly the parachute sank quickly to the ground just as the train rushed by. Thousands of persons ran to the scene expecting to find the mangled body of the balloonist. The parachute was crushed, but Mattery, by flinging himself from it at the last moment, had escaped death under the engine by two feet. He rolled down an embankment and arose unhurt physically, but suffering from the strain of the battle through which he had passed.

Mattery and W. H. McKinney, another aeronaut, had entered into a balloon race at Sixty-seventh street and Stony Island avenue. The winner of the novel contest was to be the one who remained in the air the longest. A $1500 purse, the contribution of Chicago aeronauts, was the reward to Mattery, the winner.

ATHENIAN CLUB

Danger from the Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of Coughs and Colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs. George Walls, of Forest City, Mo., writes: "My wife and I and our family living in all climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quickly ends them. It prevents Pneumonia, cures La Grippe, gives wonderful relief in Asthma and Hay Fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to guard against Consumption, Coughs and Colds; 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by Osgood Bros' drug store, Twelfth and Washington streets and Seventh and Broadway. Trial bottle free."

After a heavy meal take a couple of Doan's Regulents, and give your stomach, liver and bowels the help they will need. Regulents bring easy, regular passages of the bowels.

What chances are daily taken by thousands of people in the matter of butter buying? Butter fat is one of the best breeding grounds of bacteria, and on every hand unhealthy cows furnish milk for the butter supply. How essential it is for every creature to have a sterilizing and pasteurizing plant, but they don't. There are only three on the Pacific Coast, and ours is the second largest and the most modern.

SKIN DISEASES
FIERY ACIDS IN THE BLOOD

All skin diseases are due to the same cause—an excess of acid in the blood caused by faulty assimilation of food and poor bowel action; this fiery acid matter is forced to the surface through the pores and glands. Pustules are formed, discharging a sticky fluid which dries and makes a crust, causing intense itching. When the crusts or scabs are scratched off the skin is left raw and bleeding. Sometimes skin diseases are in the form of dry, flaking scales come on the flesh, or the skin becomes hard and dry, often cracking, and the painful itching causes acute suffering. It does not matter how the trouble is manifested, the cause is the same—an excess of acid in the blood. Salves, powders, cooling washes, etc., while they relieve the itching and give the sufferer temporary comfort, cannot cure the trouble because they do not reach the acid laden blood. The best treatment for all skin diseases is S. S. S., a remedy that is purely vegetable and one which acts directly on the blood with a cleansing, healing effect. S. S. S. neutralizes the acids, and purifies the blood so that the skin instead of being blistered and burned by the fiery fluids, is nourished by a supply of cooling, healthy blood. Special Skin Diseases and any medical advice desired will be furnished charge.

WILL MEET IN CONVENTION

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS
WILL HOLD ANNUAL SESSION.

Spring seems to be the time for conventions and people are busy going here and there to attend the various affairs arranged by church workers and others. The Alameda County Sunday School Association holds its annual convention tomorrow in the Union Street Presbyterian Church. Besides the election of officers and other routine business, an elaborate program has been prepared. It might almost be called a star program. Resident local workers, Dr. Boardman of the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church, who has recently joined the Alameda county forces, and Bishop Bell, who has his residence in Berkeley, will be heard. Bishop Bell is known in the East as one of the very strongest workers among young people. In addition to the above, State Secretary Fisher is to appear on the program, and Professor Bode of the Pacific Theological Seminary is to give one of his addresses which has been called a real classic. But the star of the whole convention is to be Miss Clara Louise Ewalt of Ohio, who is temporarily on the coast and represents the finest modern Sunday school work now being done in the Eastern States. She will be heard morning and afternoon.

The ladies of the Union Street Presbyterian Church, where the association is to meet, are furnishing a noon luncheon and a 4 o'clock dinner. Plates for the latter are 25 cents.

The program is as follows:

Morning session—Bible reading; special service in the Sunday school; Rev. F. H. Maar, Fourth Congregational Church; reports from schools, good points in our special day services; "The Preparation of a Lesson," Miss Clara Louise Ewalt, Columbus, Ohio; "Directing the Pupil's Development in Christian Service," C. R. Fisher, general secretary; reports from teachers who give their pupils something to do; luncheon, served by the ladies of the church, 10 cents.

Afternoon session—Preparation service, Rev. J. C. Bolster, Centennial M. E. Church; "How Can the Sunday School Reach the Home?" Rev. C. S. Patterson, San Francisco; home department, round table and experience meeting, sustaining election of officers, pledge, sustaining membership, offering; "Problems of the Primary Teacher," Miss Clara Louise Ewalt; round table, Sunday school problems, C. R. Fisher; Bible study, "Jesus on the Mountain," Professor William P. Reed, Pacific Theological Seminary; social half hour; Sunday school workers around the tea cups, a delightful supper, minute talks, full of spice as well as meat. Plates 25 cents, and should be enjoyed before convention. Very slim chance of getting any as late as convention day.

Evening session—Prize service; address on Sunday school work, "Rev. H. L. Boardman, Tenth Avenue Baptist Church; special music, sustaining membership, offering; address, "Successful Teaching," Bishop William M. Bell, United Brethren Church.

NEW PLAYS FOR MACDONOUGH THEATER

"Silly Simple and Simon Silly" is the title of the opening burlesque of "Reilly & Woods" show, which plays at the Macdonough Theater tonight. It is a refreshing, fantastical satire and abounds with funny and exciting situations, in which there is a general complication and mixup, much to the amusement of the auditors. Matters are amicably settled and all is mirth, music and song. The numbers introduced by the show girls are entrancing and captivating. The music is tuneful, and costumes worn by the ladies are Parisian importations and jewels of the dressmaker's art. The repartee and comedy are pleasing and cultivated. The olio consists of some of the best known vaudeville people and is one of the strongest ever collected for a burlesque show. Seats now on sale.

"HEIR TO THE HOORAH"

Jane Peyton's princess gowns in the "Heir to the Hoorah" show all the newest touches in modishness. What a delight it will be this winter to wear frocks fashioned after the manner of her first act creation of white batiste! Women will naturally like to know how the gown is set up. By an artist to be sure, for its exquisite fit depends entirely upon someone's painstaking fingers. These deft fingers have laid a series of graduated pinched tucks which make the gown a caressing fit to her figure and insects of embroidery anglis hold full on flounces of the sheer silky batiste while attached to the footline is a vertically tucked flounce finished with two sun's pleats. The top of this princess is finished with a square cut decollete and gracefully puffed sleeves reach well down to her elbows.

The "Heir to the Hoorah" will be seen at the Macdonough Theater Tuesday and Wednesday, April 3 and 4. Seats now on sale.

OTHER PLAYS.

Creston Clarke will appear at the Macdonough next Sunday afternoon and evening.

The Irvell Opera Company will appear at the Macdonough next Monday night. Nellie Stewart will be seen at the Macdonough on April 6 and 7, and also at a matinee.

GRAND JURY TO ARRANGE MEETING
ACT. TO PROTEST

WILL TAKE UP THE INSURANCE SCANDALS IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, April 2.—Recorder Goff, at the expanding of the April grand jury in the Court of General Sessions today, instructed the jury to take up insurance matters. These matters, he said, had been called to his attention by Judge O'Sullivan, who presided over the March grand jury. He said it appeared to him that the March grand jury had been properly instructed by both Judge O'Sullivan and District Attorney Jerome, that there was reasonable ground for the belief that there is valuable evidence showing that various persons have been committed in the insurance matter. He instructed the grand jury that it had untrammelled power to act in the matter as it saw fit.

COMEDY AT THE
LIBERTY THEATER

WALTER E. PERKINS IN "WHO GOES THERE?"

The odd title of the new farce comedy, "Who Goes There?" written for the famous comedian, Walter E. Perkins, has been a haunting question from the billboards of late. The comedy tells a story founded on the doings of the State militia and as such is a novelty in the affairs. We may expect to see dashing young military officers and the splendidly gowned and pretty girls that are always in evidence when soldiers are around. "Who Goes There?" What the story is, Mr. Perkins refuses to divulge in advance, as he says he does not believe in the point being exposed before the story is told. This much he will tell: that there are three lieutenants encamped with their regiments about to leave for the Cuban war. Three sweethearts run away from home bent on marrying their heroes before the cruel machete of the Spaniards shall mow them down. These New York belles are followed by their legal guardians bent on stopping them in their desires. The efforts of the lieutenants to hide their girls, and the fact that a girl of the small town near where the soldiers are encamped is engaged to marry a young drug clerk, get things helplessly mixed in a complication in which everybody is mistaken for everybody else.

PAINTERS MEET.

Local No. 127, Painters, Paperhangers and Decorators, at its last meeting, had 250 members present. Dues to apprentices and honorary members were raised from 25 to 50 cents per month. A proposition to buy another cemetery lot in San Francisco for union members was laid over until the meeting this week, Thursday evening.

PRINTERS.

Nomination of officers by Oakland Typographical Union has been postponed until the last Saturday in April, the 28th inst.

SHORTER HOURS.
